Prepare, Share, Care

Advent is here for 2022. In our childhood, we learned that the symbol of the Advent Wreath placed in our homes, classrooms and churches was a time of PREPARATION for the coming of Jesus. Christmas preparation began four weeks ahead of Christmas in those days, not in September or October as we experience in our secular world today. Now the stores put out Christmas "stuff" before Halloween.

Stretching out the preparation time to months, instead of four weeks, seems to have caused Advent to lose its excitement, its focus, its purpose. Yes, it might give shoppers time to find the right gift, the best bargain, or the perfect purchase for each loved one. Yes, it might give the storekeepers more time to make more money. Bombarded by TV, magazine, and internet ads, and also stocked stores, we are told to get ready.

TV also offers us a daily Christmas Hallmark movie countdown till Christmas. These movies feature life and family as warm, loving, happy and satisfied. It all works out in the end with a kiss two minutes before the end. We know only too well that our lives are not always that perfect and loving for they can get messy at times.

Then, there are Christmas bazaars and sales at churches and schools selling the inventory of talented crafters. To get in the spirit of the Christmas Season, it is fun to attend, look around, enjoy, and get ideas from these bazaars. We do find some gifts, but how often do we come home with "stuff" we don't need, however, just want or like.

The grocery stores tell us what to get and how to make it, providing recipes for that huge Christmas meal. Sometimes dessert is delayed due to the scrumptious meal served to celebrate with our guests.

All these occasions: sales, food, gifts, recipes, and movies are not bad for they help us gather and celebrate with family, relatives, and friends. Yet can we set aside time to primarily focus on Jesus for it is His Birthday we are celebrating? Focusing on extra prayer time with an Advent Wreath, a Jesse Tree, an Advent Calendar, or a Christmas Novena can be that precious time for each of us or for our families. Helping with a meal for the poor at our parishes, taking an ornament off a Giving Tree or packing a shoebox to help local churches provide gifts for the poor are meaningful ways to celebrate the Christmas Spirit. Buying baby items for Love Life, donating items of food for the Hope House or other gifts for the shelters in town, sharing your family Christmas dinner with someone who will be alone are excellent practices that flow from our prayer and preparation for the Christmas Season. Yes, "Jesus is the Reason for the Season." Let us Prepare, Share and Care and Jesus will be given through you to others as the best Christmas gift for 2022!

Have a Blessed Advent! Sr. Jan

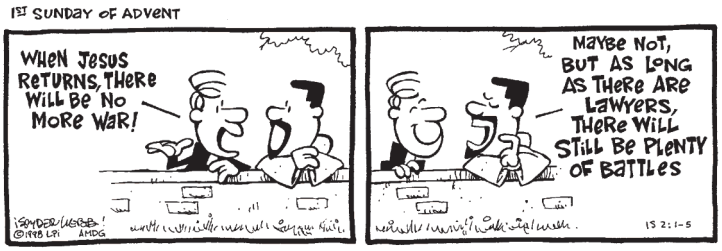
GRACE is Thankful for You!

Sincere gratitude and appreciation to our grace-filled community for your engagement and contributions to the exciting and rewarding work in our GRACE schools. Together, through our unified mission of Catholic education, we can support the journey of our faith-filled learners of today becoming disciples in Christ so that they may continue to develop, grow, and impact the world positively.

Thank you to our parishes, families, teachers, leaders, supporters, friends, and volunteers who make possible the excellent education to GRACE students.



Our Advent Journey

Journey – moving from the place we are to another – sometimes familiar, sometimes very different. During Advent we focus on Mary's journey of faith as a model for ours. Her journey moved from learning of God's plan for bringing forth New Life through her "yes", a visit to Elizabeth, her marriage to Joseph and finally an unexpected move to Bethlehem where she gave birth to her Son. Our journey of faith will hopefully move us from our current status quo in our relationship with God to something much deeper as we meet God in our everyday tasks and encounters with others.

For me, this Advent brings a different journey. When I learned of an available opening in our new residential facility (Trinity Woods), in the assisted living section, I responded with my "yes" to God's call even though it came quite suddenly. It means leaving St. Joes and our other Quad parishes (home for 22 years) to move to Milwaukee. Because my personal space will be small I am busy "downsizing" as many of you have done. So please, no gifts beyond your prayers. I need to be packed and ready to go on Dec. 15. My new address will be: Sr. Toni Jendrasiak, Trinity Woods, Room 242, 9525 Burleigh St., Milwaukee, WI, 53222.

While I am happy to move while I am still in relatively good health, I am saddened at needing to part with you who have been my friends for so many years. I ask you to forgive me for those times I may have failed or hurt you; I am grateful that at times I could assist you in some way. Please keep me in your prayers during this transition time, especially at Eucharist. And know that you will always be in mine. May our loving God continue to bless you and your families.

Peace!
Sr. Toni
