Prepare Him Room

Christ was born for the redemption of the world; for each of us. This is the greatest love story ever known. It begins with God asking; as the angel appeared to Mary, and her humble yes to become the mother of God. It continues with Joseph choosing to be a part of it all; to stand by Mary's side, to raise Jesus, to nurture and protect, and to become the Holy Family. The family of God is forever, created for us, and we too are desired, chosen, and held close in that love.

Taking part in this great love story was not thrust upon Mary or Joseph, just as it is not forced upon us. We must choose to turn to God, day in and day out. We must answer as He beckons to us. When we do, the embrace is complete, touching every fiber of our being and creating a burning in our soul to become even closer with Him.

It is Jesus. Through Him, With Him, and In Him. What is it about the way we live and worship that identifies us as Catholic? Is it the miracle of the Eucharist, in which we are able to partake at Mass, as the Supper of the Lord transcends time and joins the heavens and the earth; that the bread and wine will be forever changed to the Body and Blood of Christ? God is outside of time and space. We have been called to take part as we prepare to receive the love of God, born in our hearts. It is through this great love that we become.

We have been destined to be a part of it all, in the most brilliantly loving way, we are all chosen as the sons and daughters, having been created by God, in love. We are all adopted by God, invited into the most intimate and loving relationship possible, with Him. It is through this relationship that we are defined; by the freely-given love of our Creator, Lord - by the sacrificial love of Jesus.

Let every trip to church become a joyful pilgrimage to the House of the Lord, rejoicing on the journey, thankful that we are free to worship together at will. It is time to search out and reach for God with a longing embrace. It is time to glorify God through love and deepening and sought after relationship.

Jesse Tree

Helping Our Neighbors

During Advent, the Pastoral Care Commission is sponsoring the Jesse Tree project. The beneficiaries this year are Freedom House (Annunciation), Golden House (St. Jude), St. John's Homeless Shelter (St. Joseph's), and Grancare Nursing Home, McCormick Assisted Living and Love Life (St. Patrick).

Please visit a tree, choose an ornament (item needed is noted on the back), purchase and return the item by Dec.14/15 to the church from which you chose the ornament. This ensures your gift goes to the correct beneficiary.

At Annunciation, St. Joseph and St. Jude:

Collection boxes will be at the church entrances for you to place your unwrapped gift with the ornament attached.

At St. Patrick place all gifts under the tree:

- Grancare Nursing Home & McCormick Assisted Living items, please wrap the gift and securely attach the ornament. Each ornament has a number that corresponds with a specific individual in the nursing home.
- Love Life items do NOT need to be wrapped, but please attach the ornament.

To make a monetary contribution, place your check, made out to the shelter of your choice, in an envelope, and put it in the collection basket.

Idea... As you are purchasing items from the Jesse Trees, please use $crip and provide an additional benefit to the parishes.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist urges us to "Prepare the way of the Lord." This is what Advent is all about, for we are called to help prepare the way of the Lord by making the real meaning of Christmas come alive in our own hearts, in our family and to reach out to those in need. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor to celebrate Christmas.

Deacon's Desk

Dear Quad Parishes Family:

Happy New Year! Yes, New Year. December 1 is the beginning of the New Church Year. We look at this time as a time of introspection as we wait for the Birth of Our Savior. It's easy to look at this time as the countdown to Christmas. It's more than that though; it is an opportunity to reflect and pray about our relationship with Jesus, our life as a Catholic and, just like on New Year's Day, an opportunity to commit ourselves to a new or renewed path to Jesus. It's a time for prayer, giving and reflection.

There are many challenges for us as Catholics. I read about some of them on Facebook. Quite frankly, when I read about the conflicts within the Church; who's right, who's wrong, who's saved, who's damned, I wonder what became of the Gospel of Love and Inclusion given to us by Our Savior in His birth, life, death and resurrection. I have a hard time avoiding commenting when I read things that go against the teachings of Jesus. I have never claimed to be a theologian, but I do believe His message is written on our hearts, a gift of our Baptism. Hope I'm right. I may have to back away from Facebook as it continues to stir up anger at what I read, even from fellow Deacons.

On a happier note my family, I hope your Thanksgiving was filled with blessings. Karen and I were blessed with 19 people at our table. We had to move the dining room into the living room and just made it. Relatives came from Indiana, Iowa and Green Bay. Our house was chaos central and we loved it. The children running around the house chasing each other, playing tag, playing hide and seek. A house becomes a home when it shelters the people you love and care about, have helped raise and have watched grow up and get old. It's important to me that people are the reason we are grateful and that we surround ourselves with them. The shopping, gifts, black Friday, cyber Monday mean very little to me. It's just stuff, but people, even the irritating ones are truly irreplaceable gifts from God. Embrace the real reason for the season; Jesus and His love for us.

Happy New Year!
Peace and Blessings, Deacon Mike

Store owners open their doors to 40 Days for Life vigil participants

BY SAM LUCERO | THE COMPASS

ASHWAUBENON — Heidi Lemke and Kari Trzinski, members of St. John the Baptist Parish in Howard, believe that God has opened doors for them and their families. This fall, the two friends and business partners decided to do the same for others.

Lemke and Trzinski own Green Bay Olive Oil Company, located in a strip mall off of Oneida Street, four doors west of the Planned Parenthood clinic. Every year, dozens of people participate in silent, prayerful vigils on the sidewalk adjacent to Oneida Street as part of 40 Days for Life.

After Lemke learned about the silent protests from Deacon Dave and Denise Parker of Pulaski, she and Trzinski decided to open their store's doors to walkers who needed a bathroom, a place to rest or something to drink.

On Sunday, Nov. 3, the two women hosted a reception for 40 Days for Life participants as they concluded their fall walking vigils.

"What they are doing is so wonderful for everybody, because they are showing these women or these families that they have other options" than abortion, said Lemke. "If we can help in any way, just to save a life, that would be great. Kari and I feel very strongly about that."

"They have a mission, the same way Heidi and I have a mission," said Kari. "We love our Catholic faith for what it has done for us personally, professionally, and how it truly builds community. We feel that's what Jesus is — he is all about helping people in any and every way."

According to Lemke, an open door is a sign of welcome and love.

FRANKLY, FRANCIS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Let us continue our "journey" with the Book of the Acts of the Apostles. After the trials experienced in Philippi, Thessalonica and Berea, Paul arrived in Athens, the very heart of Greece (cf. Acts 17:15). This city that lived in the shadow of its ancient glory despite its political decline, still held the primacy of culture. Here the Apostle's "spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols" (Acts 17:16).

Today, let us ask the Holy Spirit to teach us to build bridges through culture, with those who do not believe and those who have a different belief from ours. ... Let us ask him for the ability to inculcate the message of faith with sensitivity, to have a contemplative gaze towards those who do not know Christ, to be moved by love that warms even the hardest of hearts.

Catholic Charities immigration counselor knows, firsthand, the life of a refugee

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — Even after 36 years at Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Green Bay, So Thao isn't thinking about retirement. His job, as an accredited immigration counselor, is too fulfilling. Especially so, since Thao and his family were refugees themselves after the Vietnam War.

In 1969, the 16-year-old Thao joined a special unit of the United States' Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in Laos working against the communists. It was also called "the Secret Army" and made up of Hmong people.

"The (U.S.) government said, 'We have to use a (local) group,'" Thao recalled. "The Hmong people had a history of fighting communism. ... That's why we got the special duty."

Thao joined for two reasons: First, in third grade, he chose to learn English at a private school. This meant he was able to pass the English exam to join the Secret Army. Secondly, there weren't "many career opportunities" in Laos. He said the choices were teaching, nursing, truck driving or joining the army.

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

About sheep and shepherds

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 The Nativity story mentions sheep and shepherds. As the Bible notes, sheep, known for docility, do recognize and follow the voice of their shepherd.
- 2 The first shepherd in the Bible was Abel, the son of Adam and Eve (Gen 4:4).
- 3 Abraham, Isaac, Moses and David were all shepherds.
- 4 Sheep were animals of sacrifice at the Temple. A ram was sacrificed by Abraham after God had given him back his son, Isaac.
- 5 Today, the wool of specially raised lambs is used to make the white pallia (shoulder bands) given by the pope to new archbishops. The lambs are raised by Trappist monks and the pallia are made by Benedictine nuns.

A Day for Healing: Sharing God's love with others

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

I recently had the pleasure of spending a day with parish and diocesan staff and volunteers at the KI Center in Green Bay.

BISHOP'S CORNER

Bishop David Ricken

This gathering was a continuation of the discipleship seminars we have held the past few years. This year's theme, "Jesus the Healer," was chosen in part based on feedback from last year's seminar, where attendees shared some of the pain and hurt they are experiencing. So, we invited Jesus the Healer to walk among us, to accompany us as we strive to bring souls to the Kingdom of God. After all, how can we be leaders who love Jesus and share his mission when we are weighed down by so much pain and brokenness?

We began by reflecting on the healing ministry of Jesus and how we can turn to our loving Father, through Jesus, to receive the healing our hearts so desperately desire. Leading us through this process were Fr. Mathias Thelen and Patrick Reis of Encounter Ministries, which exists to train and disciple Catholics to demonstrate the power and love of God through the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Their mission is rooted in the belief that if we want the name of Jesus to spread, we need to participate in God's power and miracles. As they shared, when we proclaim the truth of the Gospel and demonstrate it through signs and wonders, people come to faith.

Perhaps as you read this, you find yourself thinking that miracles and healings are a thing of the past, something Jesus could do because he was God, but not something that we can do. Maybe you've heard stories about miraculous healings today, but you've always felt that those are unique exceptions, and something only someone who is especially holy could bring about.

But this was the great news that Fr. Mathias and Patrick shared with us; as baptized Christians, each of us has received the grace to participate in these miracles. This means that each of us can be a source of healing to others when we open ourselves to what God wants to do for that person!

The beauty of this day was that we didn't just talk about these things, we actually tried it. After receiving training in how we can pray for others who are in need of healing, in particular physical healings, we intentionally made time to ask God to heal people. And the results were incredible! Dozens of people came forward to share that after receiving prayers for various physical ailments, they began feeling less pain and, in some cases, no pain at all!

Now, not everyone who received prayers experienced a miraculous healing. We don't know why God brings healing to some people immediately, while others must wait, and others never receive the healing they are seeking. As the speakers said, "It's our job to pray, it's God's job to heal." But we witnessed that God does bring healing to people, and we can be instruments of that healing!

NOTICES

Prescriptions & Health Aids: Due to unforeseen circumstances the Green Bay Medical Sewing Mission can no longer accept any medications. Individuals can work with the Green Bay Police Dept. regarding proper disposal. We can still accept diabetic insulin/supplies, crutches, wheelchairs, commodes, braces, slings, hearing aids & glasses. They can be dropped off at the QP Office.

SEVERE WEATHER

There are no plans to cancel morning masses in case of severe weather; however, for safety reasons, be very conscientious about coming out in inclement weather. Your safety is of utmost importance and we cannot guarantee that parking lots will be cleared. Please use your best judgment. The Faith Formation Center, St. Patrick Food Pantry & Love Life will be closed when the schools close. Every attempt will be made to have the Quad-Parish offices open, but please call before coming since we may get in late or leave early. Our main concern is keeping everyone safe and we don't want you coming to the office if it is not open.

ATTN: SCRIP CARD USERS

When you pay with scrip or a gift card, do you sometimes have a small balance left on the card? Would you consider donating that card to those in need? We often get walk-ins requesting money to purchase gas, food, or prescriptions. The small balances left on your gift cards could add up to be enough to help someone have their next meal, pick-up a prescription, or purchase gas to get to a doctor appt, an out-of-town funeral, or to work the next day. Cards can be dropped in the collection baskets, or at the Quad-Parish or Faith Formation Office. It would be helpful if you would indicate the balance left on the card.

PRAYER VINE

Do you have a special need for prayer? If you or someone you know needs a few extra prayers said for them, you can call the Quad-Parish Office at 496-2160.

It is not necessary to give names or specific details. Request examples: "Please pray for Sue (or 'a lady') that is going to Marshfield for testing" or "Please pray for my new grandson who was born two months premature."

Friendly Reminder: When going to church, please don't apply perfume or cologne. They can cause irritation or severe reaction to people who have allergies or asthma. Thank you for being considerate of others.

Homebound or Nursing Home Visits/ Communion Calls

Parishioners who are unable to attend Mass due to illness or incapacity may request a Minister of Care to visit and bring Communion. If it is an emergency after hours, please call 617-8646.

To help us keep track of our parishioners, we ask that families (and neighbors) let us know when a loved one or neighbor is homebound, in a nursing home or in an assisted living facility so that we can provide visits and care. Also, please let us know if someone is receiving Hospice Care so Pastoral Care can be provided at this difficult time.

Hospitalization

Please ask admitting personnel to inform your parish whenever you or a loved one is hospitalized. If at all possible either a priest or a pastoral associate will visit. Privacy concerns do not permit the hospital to initiate the contact.
