

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." - Jn 20:29

A new day. A new hope. A new life.

Happy Easter Everyone! Alleluia! In the midst of all that is happening these days, it is good to say Alleluia again. Even though we were not able to physically celebrate Holy Week and the Easter liturgies together, you were certainly in my thoughts and prayers as I prayed mass each day. I must admit, I MISS YOU GREATLY! Yes, even those of you who fall asleep during my homilies.

We need to be reminded in these times that God has not abandoned us. We may echo the words of Jesus on the cross, "My God, My God Why have you abandoned me". But the reality is that we daily rejoice in the love of our incredible God which is beyond all understanding. As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, we willingly take Jesus' hand to follow where he leads.

Our pain? It doesn't win.
Our disappointments? They don't win.
Our grief and sorrow? They won't win.
Our suffering? It doesn't win.
Our loneliness? It can't win.
Our failures? They truly will not win.
Our separation because of present situations? This too will be conquered.
God wins and we win because God wins?

My friends, today is a promise to each of us, that whatever challenge we have it is not the end of the story. There is something beautiful on the horizon. A new day. A new hope. A new life.

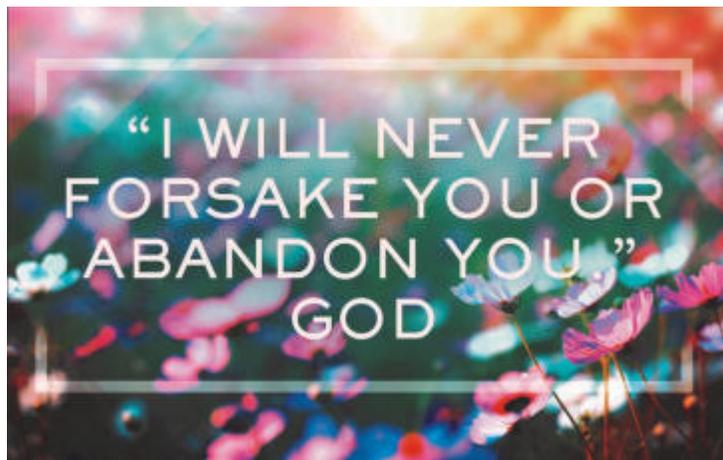

So today, look out your window. See people helping each other in ways that we have not seen in ages. See families, not running from one activity to another, but spending time with each other. Couples walking hand in hand down the sidewalk. See the reality of Spring bursting forth in bird songs, green grass, trees budding, and flowers blooming. Oh yes, this being Wisconsin I woke up on Monday morning with ten inches of glorious snow! I was up North.

Thank you for your prayers for each other, myself, and the team at the Quad parishes. Thank you also to those who have been sending in your financial contributions. They are so appreciated.

I don't want to end on a financial comment so here is an interesting bit of history. On April 14th in the year 2301 B.C. the Chinese saint, Hi Ling Su found that happiness lies in the heart and not in any special place or in the circumstances of life. Today and each day....see love, mercy and happiness!

Peace,
Fr. Dave

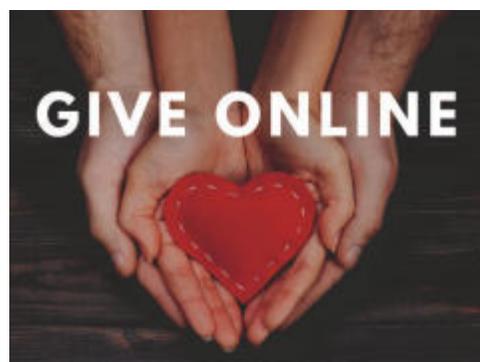

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Live The Liturgy Inspiration For The Week

Have you ever experienced awe? Awe is commonly defined as a feeling of reverential respect mixed with fear or wonder. A moment of awe has the ability to lift us up out of ourselves and immerse us into something that causes us to wonder about ourselves, the meaning of life, and truth. Awe is an experience of connection that links us to something that is beyond the normal happenings of life. For us who believe that the resurrected Christ is present in all of life and the totality of the universe, being touched by awe can lead us to exclaim, "My Lord and my God!" Pondering the vastness of God's presence also brings us to a profound sense of God's mercy, which is the showering of His unconditional love on each of His daughters and sons. When we internalize this mystery, we may find ourselves standing in awe once again and feeling an intense sense of peace.

- NEW - Online Giving Opportunity

The Catholic Foundation is supporting parishes in the Green Bay Diocese at this time by providing a temporary Online Giving platform. We will be utilizing this resource as we look at options for a more permanent solution for our parishes. It is through the gracious support of our parish community that we are able to Find Home, Hope and Holiness and bring the love of Christ to our communities. Online giving is available on our website www.quad-parish.org. Click on "Share Your Gifts" on the top of the page for more information. Contributions can also be mailed to the Quad-Parish Business Office at 1087 Kellogg Street, Green Bay, WI 54303.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Question: Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer: If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, “a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come.”

How to Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Optional Opening Prayers:

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.

O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(Repeat 3 times) O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

Our Father, Hail Mary & the Apostle's Creed

For each of the five decades

(On each “Our Father” bead of the rosary, pray)
Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

(On each of the 10 “Hail Mary” beads, pray)
For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Concluding Prayer (Repeat 3 times)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One,
Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

Optional Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

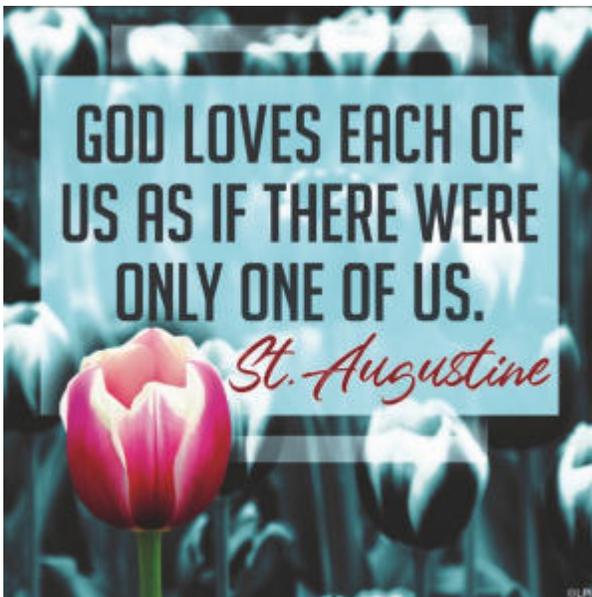

JN 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Jesus stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

Jesus' gives his gift of peace on Easter evening. How have you experienced Peace over the past few weeks? Have you discovered Jesus standing in the midst of your family?

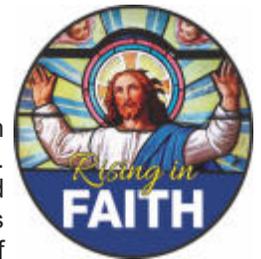

Today is named Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus breathed on the disciples and said to them, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

When have you experienced the joy of God's merciful love in your life? How have you shown mercy and forgiveness to others recently? Is there anyone in your life you are unwilling to forgive?

Jesus said, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

How has your faith grown this Lent and Easter? During this pandemic we've seen many acts of belief in Jesus expressed in deeds of kindness, people going the extra mile, displays of creativity, etc. How will you share your belief in Jesus during this Easter season and beyond?

Bishop's Appeal

We have just lived the sacred Triduum and celebrated the Lord's Resurrection. Over this last week, we were reminded about how Jesus calls us all to be His disciples. Through the good works of the Bishop's Appeal, we are able to follow Jesus by sharing our faith.

Giving a gift to the Bishop's Appeal during the six weeks of this Easter Season would be a wonderful way to continue to follow in the footsteps of our risen Christ. If you have not yet made your gift to the Bishop's Appeal, please consider the joy you could bring to the lives of others now and throughout the year.
