

4th SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.” - Jn 10:2-3

Finding God in Silence

This week is called Good Shepherd Sunday. The Gospel from John 10:1-10 reminds us of something we have known since we were children, Jesus is our Shepherd and we are His sheep. A commentary I read today in "The Word Among Us" reminds us that we are all shepherds for God's people. Our flocks are those around us at home, at work and in the social groups of which we are a part.

Now at this time of the Covid-19 crisis and the social distancing requirements it has brought into our lives, relating to our flocks is very different than it was in mid-March. We might not be hanging out with our church group, our card clubs, our sports teams or other social groups at all. We are probably spending less time at the office or at the workplace and more time working from home or not working at all at our regular job. Some people are risking their lives working in "essential jobs."

We are spending more time at home with our families, or alone or with our religious community members. Are we using this time to be present to our flocks? Are we trying to reach out to our flocks?

Some ways we can do this are:

- Calling, texting, writing to those who need contact or posting positive encouragement on the web
- Making, buying or delivering food to those in need of help
- Making masks for our families and health care facilities
- Attending Mass as a family on TV with our Bishop on Sunday TV or on-line with our parish priests
- Praying more and reflecting more in our favorite spot in the house or outside
- Listening to those around us and sharing from the heart
- Homeschooling our children or grandchildren with wisdom and love
- Walking outdoors alone or with others to enjoy our beautiful world
- Doing puzzles or playing board games or cards with family
- Sharing in new and different ways with time to do it in a relaxed way

This time has opened new avenues of awareness of peoples' needs. Our flock has become, not just family, but those in our city, our state, our country and our world. Our help, prayers and shepherding has taken on a new focus and expanded our flock. Let us be good shepherds as Jesus has been to us. Let us lay down our lives for others.

May is the month of Mary

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Today the Holy Father has asked all Catholics to intercede for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the religious who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests, sisters and deacons in prayer throughout the week.
- Encourage your children or grandchildren to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

JN 10:1-10

Jesus said:

"Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber.

But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.

The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice.

But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers."

Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them.

So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep.

All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

I am the gate.

Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.

A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

The gatekeeper for a flock of sheep in Jesus' time lay across the opening in the wall in order to protect the sheep during the night. Jesus, our shepherd, protects us. He calls us each by name to follow him.

How well have you been following Jesus' Way of Life?

When you are freer to leave your home as the pandemic eases will you go out as a missionary disciple helping others to know of God's loving care?

Has Jesus been calling you by name to follow him as a lay person, a sister/brother, deacon, priest?

How does it change you to know Jesus loves you the way you are?

Jesus promises abundant life. What does that mean to you?

New for the Month of May "Together" Virtual Small Groups

We are excited to announce a new online ministry for the month of May. While we are still under "stay at home" requirements, so many are looking for an opportunity to connect on a deeper level.

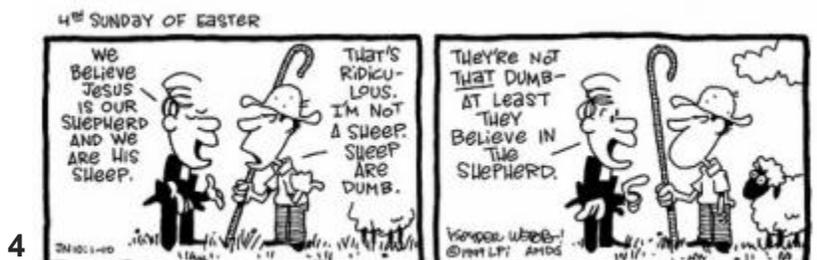

Small groups will meet weekly in May for 1-1.5 hours on Google Hangouts. Trainings for Google Hangouts will be available to make sure everyone is comfortable with this simple online group meeting tool.

Are you a parent looking for support while navigating working from home, schooling from home and everyone being home? Are you a grandparent who misses opportunities to see your family? Are you single and experiencing loneliness and would love a community to connect with? We are in this TOGETHER!

We will be gathering groups of 8-10 people to meet up once a week to connect, support, share life and pray as a faith family. The format will be simple and small group leaders will be assigned to each group to walk through the weekly reflections.

We hope you will join us!

Bishop's Appeal

With little water, minimal electricity and no money, the people of our Eliás Piña mission in the Dominican Republic have abundant faith. In this land of poverty, many people do not have the resources to find a job or the ability to attend Mass. The mission in Eliás Piña helps provide necessary resources by attending to the physical and spiritual needs of these communities.

Although you may not be able to physically travel to the Dominican Republic to help these communities, your support of the Bishop's Appeal can share our faith with them from across the globe. Think about sharing the abundance of your gifts with others by giving a gift to the Bishop's Appeal.

If you have not made a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, please prayerfully consider the impact it would have on our parishes and communities and make a gift today.

In the midst of recent developments of the Coronavirus, life is going to be looking a little different the next several weeks, and so is our parish bulletin! The bulletin pages will be filled with news, inspiration, stories, prayer and a little bit of humor to help our parish families grow spiritually so when we do come back together, our hearts will be on fire for the Lord! 5. Following the Holy Spirit & Sharing our Gifts: We have an unique opportunity to be the Body of Christ in the next several weeks!

A. It has been exciting to hear our parishioners sharing ideas on how we can share our faith and hope in Christ with others. We pray the Holy Spirit continues to connect and inspire us through this journey.

The Quad-Parishes have partnered with City Serve Green Bay in the past and have an opportunity to connect to serve our community in the next several weeks.

Faithful citySERVE volunteers and partners, it is our prayer that you and your families are staying safe and healthy during this very unusual time. Health and job concerns surround us, but we have a God who is bigger than all these things. And so, we trust Him. We also reach out to those in need.

Because of our partnership with the Green Bay School District in the past, citySERVE has been asked if we might provide volunteers to help at 2 school sites with weekend food distribution over the next 8 weeks. Six volunteers are needed each Friday morning (3 for each site) to pick up 125 bags of food at a designated warehouse, take them to one of the schools, and hand them out to those needing them. Volunteers must be practicing social distancing, be willing to wear masks and gloves, and have enough vehicle space to transport the bags. The bags are passed into an open car window as families drive through to maintain distancing.

If you are healthy and might be available, would you reach out to us with questions and about scheduling? We have volunteers for the first 2 weeks, but now that funding has been provided for the last 6 weeks, we'd love to fill out the remainder. Please call Jama at 425-753-5202 Thank you for your hearts to serve!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on Jesus' care and love of us and hear his words, "I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly." By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you will reveal the love of the "Good Shepherd" to your suffering brothers and sisters. Anyone wanting to know more about us please call Mike 920-494-2214.
