PENTECOST SUNDAY

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

- Jn 20:21

The Power of Pentecost

As we begin to emerge from our social isolation, even if it is just to hang out in the backyard in warmer weather, we have a taste of freedom. The news has been difficult to digest since March when the daily reports have been ominous. Personally, I have had to limit what I watch to maintain a positive perspective. I am struck at this time, however, by the witness of charity by folks all over the world. All ages, all religious affiliations, all economic backgrounds have contributed to the building of the kingdom.

Essential workers from every job description have kept us going, fed and cared for us. I am reminded of our second reading today from Corinthians: "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord...To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

We get a clear picture during these challenging times of how important every person and every kindness is. Creative entrepreneurs have sprung up all over, making masks, providing parent and teacher support, producing videos from their homes – all in an effort to help out and keep us connected. Unexpected camaraderie has sprung up among those needing help and those engineering solutions on how best to solve the logistics of getting that help to them. When I hear the motto, "We're all in this together" I feel that we are indeed becoming a family of humanity dedicated to alleviating suffering.

Sure, we hear of those who are attempting to take advantage of desperation for profit. But the good outweighs the bad every time.

Our gospel today tells us: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." Each of us plays a part in making the world a better place to be. Whatever your gift is, now is the time to use it for good.

God Bless you
Nancy Lemerond
Music Coordinator

We will continue to schedule opportunities for distribution of Holy Communion on Sunday mornings. Each Communion Service will allow for 8 people at a time.

The sick, immunocompromised and vulnerable should refrain from partaking in the communion services at this time. Everyone's attendance is optional, as Catholics are not obligated to attend Mass during this time.

We are asking that everyone who is interested in coming to a Communion Service sign up for a specific time. Sign up for each week's Communion Service will begin at 9 am the Monday prior following a link on the Quad Parish website and FaceBook page. If you do not have internet, or prefer to call in, you can call the parish office (920) 496-2160 on Mon-Thurs from 9a-1p. Communion Services will be spaced 20 minutes apart. This gives us time to sanitize between services.

A flow of movement into and out of the spaces will be marked with signage, allowing us to avoid crossover. The entrance at St. Joseph will be door # 5 (blue awning). The exit at St. Joseph will be door # 6 (near the cry room and sacristy). The entrance at St. Jude will be door #1 (school door). The exit at St. Jude will be door #2 (gathering space). Please remember to be mindful and minimize what you touch so that we can sanitize quickly and efficiently following each service.

What to expect:

- You are strongly encouraged to watch the livestream Mass before attending a Communion Service but this is not mandatory.
- Arrive to your scheduled site 5 minutes prior to your planned visit.
- Use social distancing and maintain a 6 ft distance between all persons who do not reside in the same household.
- All unnecessary things should remain behind in your vehicle.
- You will be asked to wear a mask. You are encouraged to bring a mask to wear during the service; we will have a limited supply at the church for those who do not have them.
- Please refrain from touching things unnecessarily.
- The entrance door will be propped open so that you may enter without contact.
- Everyone's temperature will be taken at the door. Those with a temperature over 100.3 will not be permitted entry.
- Hand sanitizer will be available for you at the entrance.
- There will be a short prayer service, then the reception of Communion followed by a closing prayer.
- You are encouraged to receive Communion in the hand.
- A basket will be available for you to place contribution envelopes in.
- The exit will also be propped open to avoid contact.

Continue to check back for updates.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL

JN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

"On the first day of the week (Easter) when the doors were locked . . . for fear, Jesus stood in their midst"

Jesus stands in our midst today. Are the doors of my heart open to his presence? What helps me to recognize that presence? What fears do I need to surrender to God' love?

"Jesus said, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'"

Where is the Father sending me? What is my mission as a disciple of Jesus? How can I share my faith in Jesus during this difficult time?

"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven."

The Spirit's gift of peace helps us to heal/strengthen our relationships. Is there anyone who needs my forgiveness? Is my relationship with God strong? If not what do I need to do? Am I using my gifts of service to build up the community?

With Sympathy

Please remember in your prayers the following who have died, and the family & friends who survive them:

Michael Schmidt - St. Jude

Delores Zimmer - St. Patrick

Glenn Michael LeFevre - St. Joseph

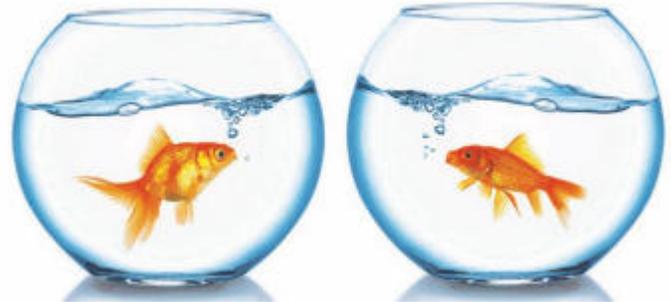

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord."

New for the Month of May "Together" Virtual Small Groups

We are excited to announce a new online ministry for the month of May. While we are still under "stay at home" requirements, so many are looking for an opportunity to connect on a deeper level.

Small groups will meet weekly during May for 1-1.5 hours through Google Hangouts. Trainings for Google Hangouts will be available to make sure everyone is comfortable with this simple online group meeting tool.

Are you a parent looking for support while navigating working from home, schooling from home and everyone being home? Are you a grandparent who misses opportunities to see your family? Are you single and experiencing loneliness and would love a community to connect with? We are in this TOGETHER!

We will be gathering groups of 8-10 people to meet up once a week to connect, support, share life and pray as a faith family. The format will be simple and small group leaders will be assigned to each group to walk through the weekly reflections. We hope you will join us!

A huge thank you to all of our small group leaders!

GRADUATION

To all who graduate from preschool, eighth grade, high school, college or the completion of a program: CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD BLESS YOU!

Allow me to address those graduating from high school. Although I hope these words may resonate with others also. In June of 1973 I sat in the Gresham School gymnasium with my other 28 high school classmates. The gym was filled with family, friends, relatives, neighbors and a lot of people I did not know. Sadly, this will not be possible for you this year. As I sat listening to speeches and presentations, I came to a realization. As important as the graduation ceremony was, what was equally, or more important, was applying what I had learned from my parents, friends, teachers to the rest of my life. Looking back over the past 47 years since graduation I realize that some of the classes that I thought would have no application in my life, really helped me develop and organize thoughts and life actions. Many of those high school moments showed me how to meet the challenges and struggles of the future. High school also helped me to enjoy and learn from whatever opportunities and challenges I may have. What I learned and experienced in high school made college, seminary, and priesthood wonderful adventures.

So, may I share with you some things that have grounded me in life.

First. From the writer, Tim Fallon.

Today, each day, all days -- be reborn.
 Walk in the world and listen to each song and sound anew.
 Hear your name as a name that is cherished.
 Invest yourself in every word as you did your first,
 Discover again the newness of life,
 the freshness of air,
 the coolness of water,
 the power of the wind,
 the mystery of God.

Live in the present yet remembering your history.
 Live it all, dare to experience it totally and embrace it.
 Admire who you are and as you walk, walk always in the presence of love.

Second. From Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

God has not called me to be successful. He called me to be faithful. AND Peace begins with a smile.

Third. My experience. In all the times when I sat with a person close to death, not once did I hear them say, "I wish my bank account was larger," or "I wish I had spent more time at work." No, what I heard them say was, "I wish I had spent more time with my family," "I wish I would have enjoyed each day more."

At this time of endings and new beginnings, Congratulations. Be faithful, smile, enjoy!

Peace, Fr. Dave

Opening the Quad Parish Office – Mon, June 1

- Quad Parish Office Hours will be 9am-1pm, Monday thru Thursday. Closed on Friday.
- Parishioners and guests will be asked to enter the Kellogg Street entrance. To limit the number of people coming into the office, business will be conducted through the front reception window if at all possible.
- If you do need to come into the building, you will be asked to wear a mask and use hand sanitizer which will be available in the front entrance.
- Gatherings in Room 105 and other areas (cafeteria, church) are limited to 10 people.
- At this time, we are limiting the use of volunteers.
- The Faith Formation Office will remain closed until further notice.

Weekday Morning Masses – Beginning Tues, June 9

- Schedule will be as it was previously with the exception that Tuesday morning Mass will be held at St. Patrick Church, not St. Joseph's.
- Anyone interested in attending a weekday morning mass should call Carol Kittell (496-2160).
- Since there is a limit of 8 people besides the priest, families of the mass intention that morning will have first option to attend. We will be contacting the family to determine how many want to be present. After that, others who have contacted Carol to be put on the list, will be scheduled for a specific mass on a rotating basis based on how many spots are open.
- You will be contacted at least 2-3 days in advance to let you know you which mass you are scheduled to attend.
- If you have any questions, contact Carol (496-2160)

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit, fan into flame the gifts I received in my Baptism and Confirmation. I want to receive the fire of Your love as Your disciples did at Pentecost. Come with wonder and awe, with wisdom, understanding, and counsel, with courage and faith in You. Holy Spirit, may my actions witness to Your presence in my life. Help me to see the ways my strengths can serve others in their weakness. In all my interactions, I want to radiate love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Breathe new life into the world through me. Amen.

St. Patrick Renovations Complete

WE ARE HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE that the renovations in St. Patrick Church are complete and it is beautiful! To keep you from having to wait possibly months before you see it, we are going to have the church open from 1:30-3:00 on Saturday, June 6 so you can come and check it out. Please enter at the glass doors on the north side of the building. We will have to limit how many people are in the church at any one time; therefore, we will be asking you to enter church, walk down the north side aisle to the back, walk across the back of church and down the south side aisle and out the Hubbard Street door. Any questions, call Carol, 496-2160.

Bishop's Appeal Helps Those Who Grieve

The loss of a loved one is an experience that many of us can understand. For grieving families throughout our Diocese, Catholic Charities is a guiding light. Perhaps a person or family is dealing with the loss of a son or daughter, or maybe a mother or father. In many tragic situations, it is difficult to begin the grieving process without help. This is where you can make a difference.

By giving to the Bishop's Appeal, you help Catholic Charities do the compassionate work of Jesus. Through your generosity, its counselors are able to reach out and help people to cope with loss when they do not know where else to turn. Please consider giving to the Bishop's Appeal.
