

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? ... In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”
- Lk 14:28, 33

Music News

Musicians wanted to provide upbeat music for liturgy "Mass" celebrations. At this time I would like to have a couple of guitar players (6 or 12 string, bass) and any other instruments that could be used for our celebrations. If you can't read music, but know your chords, that would be fine. Since I write and compose music, in the near future with our three parishes, I'm looking at some recording with our new choir to be called "Trinity." So come and volunteer your talent for your parish and God, maybe this will give you the extra credits you may need for entry into heaven.

On Saturday, August 20th Fr. Mark Mleziva spoke about his call to the priesthood while in college, as well as some wonderful statistics about Diocesan priests! The average age for one of our priests to have first considered the priesthood was at 14 (or 12 in Fr. Tony's case!), so we must continue to pray for our young men and women, that they may recognize and respond to the voice of the Lord.

Dear Members of the St. Joseph Family,

On Saturday, September 17, we will be celebrating Fall Fest! From 10 am to 3 pm, we will have an opportunity to show our community and outreach spirit. With food, fun, and the gathering of family, friends and neighbors, we can show what it means to be a parish of hospitality and welcome, a parish that enjoys having fun together.

You may ask why the Fall Fest is so important. It is an opportunity to build on the community spirit that is ours as a parish. It shows how we all come together and work together. We all know that something is done in the name of our Lord and the community; there is a sense of satisfaction and accomplishment in the work that is done. Also, Fall Fest is an important fundraiser for the parish.

All areas of the festival are important and each area contributes to the success of the day. Continue to check the bulletin for ideas on how you and your family can help. If everyone does just a little....support and donate toward the booths, spend some time at Fall Fest, and invite others to share in the day...we will have a wonderful, successful day.

God bless the work of our hands.

The Fall Fest Committee

To insure the success of Fall Fest we are asking for donations toward our Fall Fest fund.

Bible Study Starts September 12 & 14

We will be starting our faith journey this fall with Bishop Robert Barron's 6 week session on The Creed. The Creed we say every Sunday was formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 AD. Obviously the Holy Spirit was at work or it would have needed to be updated or somehow changed to meet the needs of our modern world.

I invite you to come and rediscover the depth of our faith. Bishop Barron is enlightening and inspiring as he shares the great intellectual and spiritual depths of our Christian doctrine and simultaneously helps us reclaim the unity, clarity, and conviction of our faith.

Classes are held in room 105 at Annunciation, 1087 Kellogg St. on Monday evenings 6:30-8:30 pm or Wednesday mornings 9-11 am. All are welcome and there is no fee. Please call the office at 920-496-2160 to register.

Offer It Up

In a 2017 Catholic Digest article, Fr. Thomas V. Berg, Ph.D. reflected on what it means to “offer up” suffering. He wrote...

The Catechism of the Catholic Church gives us the framework within which to understand the theological foundation of the practice of “offering it up.”

The cross is the unique sacrifice of Christ, the “one mediator between God and men” [1 Timothy 2:5]. But because in his incarnate divine person he has in some way united himself to every man, “the possibility of being made partners, in a way known to God, in the paschal mystery” is offered to all men (618).

That framework, in other words, is the mystery of redemptive suffering. Christ makes us — members of his Mystical Body — participants in that redemptive self-offering of Christ our head. St. Paul left the Church a vivid and poignant understanding of just what that means when he insisted:

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church (Colossians 1:24).

In most of her apparitions, particularly at Fatima, Our Lady also has repeatedly reminded us of this mysterious participation in redemptive suffering. The three visionaries of Fatima received her message as a call, in part, to live the rest of their lives finding frequent opportunities to offer acts of reparation for sinners.

The Church has long recognized that some of the baptized are invited mysteriously to a veritable vocation of redemptive suffering in a very high degree (i.e., stigmata). Normally, however, our Lord seems to delight in our generous “offering up” of the lesser daily trials he permits in our lives. The Daily Offering prayer captures what should be ideally our habitual attitude of offering the “prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world.” To live with that attitude is something beautiful in God’s eyes.

In fact, it is possible over time with God’s grace to embrace — even with joy — the unpleasant surprises, setbacks, apparent failures, frustrations, and hurts that come our way precisely because we experience how profoundly God can work in and through them for our good and the good of the Church. By offering these things up, uniting them to the redemptive sacrifice of Jesus, we trust that God the Father mysteriously brings about some good somewhere in the Mystical Body as a fruit of our generous offering. Yet we benefit as well, as he simultaneously turns our sufferings, big or small, into opportunities for personal growth and holiness.

The invitation here, of course, is to examine how we handle the challenges that we encounter. Do we take the path of blame or self-pity, or do we accept them as an opportunity to grow in God’s grace?

Paz y Amor,
Dcn. Bill
