

EASTER SUNDAY

Please accept my heartfelt thanks for all your prayers, good wishes, and gifts as I begin my retirement. It has truly been an honor being able to work with you and serve our parishes with you. I have loved getting to know you and hope to still see you often at church and parish events.

If you want to find me this summer, look out on my back deck where I will be reading or doing embroidery while watching the birds, or on the Bay as I kayak past, or on my bike on one of the trails, or walking along Nicolet Drive. I do have one favor to ask: please show Dcn. Bill the same type of support and encouragement you showed me; it would be impossible to do the work without that. I am also extremely grateful for the Quad Parish staff, past and present. You made coming to the office enjoyable, you fixed my mistakes, we worked together as a team, and we had a lot of good times. Even though I am not going to miss the responsibilities, I am going to miss being a part of the team. Thank you for your cooperation and for the support you showed me and each other. May God bless all of you and our parishes. See you around!

See and Believe by Deacon Dan

Do you ever think about the confusion of the resurrection stories from the four Gospels? Let's lay the Gospels side by side: In Matthew, as Mary Magdalene and the other Mary are going to the tomb there is an earthquake as an angel rolls back the stone from Jesus' tomb. In Mark, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome are going to the tomb and they find that the stone is already rolled back. Luke's Gospel gives no names of who goes to the tomb; he just refers to them as "they". These people encounter two angels. John in his Gospel only says that Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and when she sees the stone rolled away she runs back to get Peter and John. In Mark, the angel tells the women that Jesus is risen and they are to go tell his disciples, so the women departed quickly in great joy. In Mark's Gospel the women fled from the tomb, trembling and astonished, and afraid. Luke has the women return to the disciples quietly and calmly. In John's Gospel it is Peter and John, who on Mary Magdalene's report run to the tomb to find it empty.

In Matthew's Gospel Jesus himself then appears to the women and directs them to tell the disciples to go to Galilee. And it is in Galilee that Jesus appears to them, gives them the great commission to baptize the nations and proclaim the Gospel. In Mark, the disciples do not believe the women. They persist in their unbelief until Jesus appears to them. Luke also suggests the disciples unconvinced. In John, Peter and John run back to tell the rest of the disciples while Mary Magdalene remains at the tomb, weeping. She then looks into the tomb and sees two angels, and then she sees Jesus who, at first, she mistakes as the gardener. John is the only one who mentions the detail of the burial cloths. Only Luke tells us of Jesus appearing to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. Luke and John tell us of Jesus appearing to the apostles in the upper room, but only John adds the story of Thomas not being present the first time.

Personally, I love all this apparent confusion. For me it adds to the authenticity of all of the Gospels. There were, in fact, many moving parts that first Easter morning and day. There were all the emotions swirling – mourning, fear, amazement, doubt, joy, excitement, confusion. Part of our trouble as rational humans we try to imagine the Gospel story as one story that played out sequentially, scene by scene. Why do we think that the risen Jesus could only be at one place at one time, speaking with one person? All of these details are included because there is important truth in all of them. They speak of the real struggles of humans (like us), even believers (like us), to get minds and hearts around the awesome reality that Jesus is risen; he is risen indeed!

2023 Bishop's Appeal

Sharing the light of Christ

Easter People

We have just lived the sacred Triduum and celebrated the Lord's Resurrection. Over this last week, we were reminded how Jesus calls us all to be His disciples. Through the good works of the Bishop's Appeal, we can follow Jesus by sharing our faith.

Giving a gift to the Bishop's Appeal during the six weeks of this Easter Season would be a wonderful way to continue to follow in the footsteps of our risen Christ. If you have not yet made your gift to the Bishop's Appeal, please consider the joy you could bring to the lives of others now and throughout the year.

To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.
