GOOD TO KNOW

Dear Parishioners,

If you or a family member is ever in the hospital and you would like a visit from a priest or a pastoral associate from the parish, please know that you can call the parish directly to let us know. Often times we are unaware of parishioners who are in the hospital and a call to the Quad Parish office would help us in knowing this. Changes in regulations protecting patient confidentiality are in effect at all hospitals. Even when the hospital asks if they may notify us of your admission and you answer “yes”, it is still helpful if you or a family member notifies us directly, especially if someone needs to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Due to HIPPA regulations the hospitals are not able to notify us of a patient’s condition, which is why your help in letting us know directly would be very helpful. You can also call the Pastoral Care Department at any hospital to notify us on your behalf.

Visiting hospitalized parishioners is an important part of our ministry. Help us to find you and/or your family members when hospitalized - a “YES” answer to “Notify parish?” will usually put you on our parish lists, but it is always a good idea to notify the Parish Office directly to make sure we are notified and also so that we know the patient’s condition since the hospital does not release this information to us unless you specifically ask them to. Your help in this matter will help us to be of better service to you.

Article 1421 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that his Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, his work of healing and salvation, even among her own members. This is the purpose of the two sacraments of healing: the sacrament of Penance and the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

“How wonderful it is to discover that God never lets go. When our darkest moment arrives, or we have wandered so far away as to think we can never find our way home, God stands ready and offers a new possibility. A second chance. A fresh start.”

Embers from the Fire

DEACON DAN WAGNITZ

www.embersfromthefire.com

Embers on the Move!

It was three years ago in April that I started writing the weekly blog Embers From the Fire. Writing the blog initially was a reaction to the COVID pandemic. As the country engaged in lockdowns in an attempt to control the spread of the virus, that included suspension of public Mass, we on the Quad Parish Staff were searching for ways to keep our Quad Parishes family engaged and in touch with one another. Embers was my contribution to that need, and that’s also why the blog has been posted to the Quad Parish Website and Facebook page.

The purpose of Embers, from the beginning, has been to help people be more aware that God is present and active in every life. We all encounter God every day, especially in our relationship with His creation, and our relationships with each other. Embers relies on the ancient foundations of Truth, Goodness and Beauty, because where those are found, God is found.

As Embers enters its fourth year, it is time to transition it to its own platform where hopefully it will reach even more people. Going forward then, Embers will be posted on its own website: www.embersfromthefire.com and its own Facebook page. You can go directly to these sites; we will also continue to post a link on the Quad Parishes sites so you can access Embers that way as well.

Each Friday morning, a new, original essay will be posted. Also, on Tuesday mornings, three essays from previous years will also be posted, so that eventually all of the essays I have written from the beginning of the blog will be available in one place. Hopefully you’ll enjoy the brand-new Friday posts, and maybe you’ll come across an old favorite, or something you may have missed the first time around on Tuesdays.

I truly appreciate those of you who have been regular followers of Embers, especially those who have encouraged me with feedback in-person. I hope that you will continue to read Embers on a regular basis at their new “home” platforms, and that you share the new sites with your family and friends.

His Peace, Deacon Dan

Everyday Stewardship

When I was a child I can remember stopping by my parish or another local Catholic church to just spend some time in prayer before the holy Eucharist. We didn't have exposition and adoration much in those days, but we were keenly aware of the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. I would sometimes stare at the lighted candle near it and know that Jesus was alive.

I had never heard someone speak about a stewardship way of life back then. If I am honest, the primary message I heard back in those days was along the lines of we need to be as good as we are able. Sacrifice was only at Lent, disciples were people in the Bible, and generosity mostly had to do with the collection basket and the poor box at the church entrance. I even went to Catholic schools!

Maybe the message of stewardship was there somewhere packaged differently and I just missed it. It wasn't until I was an adult, and after acquiring two theology degrees, that I understood both with my head and my heart what a stewardship way of life really meant. But I look back at those days and I realize that the groundwork was laid for me to understand these things. It was those times before the holy Eucharist that I began to understand true sacrifice. It was at those times that I began to understand how actions and realities that seem so simple to the human eye can be so profound. And it was at those times that I began to see that true love knows no bounds. What does the holy Eucharist say to you about stewardship? Maybe today is a great time to reflect on your answer.

Real Presence

Question:

How do you explain “Real Presence” to children?

Answer:

The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question “why,” and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. “Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 18:3).
