What's the answer to today's attendance at Mass?

by Jim Bertler

As I read through a number of books concerning music and wording, along with instrumentation within the Church of today, I can see why some of our elders may be startled at some of the changes. Yet, the Church we belong to has changed throughout the centuries for a better understanding for its people, but the Church's Doctrine is still the same. The Church has called upon musical artists to give music a new voice in praising God. My fellow parishioners, this is part of my job, to enhance the musical parts of the Mass. Again, as I have mentioned in previous articles in this bulletin, this is where we bring in our youth. Our Church is constantly embracing new ways to praise God reverently and authentically.

Today, we are seeing less attendance at our weekly celebrations. Why is this? Again, here is my job of trying to get the youth back to Church. Well, I will always be addressing the subject of music to enhance our liturgies with an inspirational music ministry. We must learn to accept change, and keep in mind the important question, why are we losing attendance at Mass. We have competition from other denominations, and I believe it's partly entertainment. (music) We have our celebration of Mass in English, and we are allowing guitars etc. to help to enhance the musical atmosphere.

What are we missing? Our music composers are trying with modern uplifting melodies, along with wording to bring scriptures to adhere to the present. So, what is the answer to today's attendance at Mass? Too busy, boring, watch it on TV etc.

If you have the answer, please call Jim at the office at 920-496-2160. If you have a good answer, we will feature it in the bulletin!

Gone to the Dogs

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, “Father, me dog is dead. Could ya’ be saying’ a mass for the poor creature?”

Father Patrick replied, “I’m afraid not, we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there are some Baptists down the lane, and there’s no tellin’ what they believe. Maybe they’ll do something for the creature.”

Muldoon said, “I’ll go right away Father. Do ya’ think $5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?”

Father Patrick exclaimed, “Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why did ya’ not tell me the dog was Catholic?”
