Teaching Religious Ed the Way Jesus Wants Us To

When I think about religious education, I think about Jesus teaching His disciples the ways in which they should follow Him and how to be like Him. This is a valuable concept because we are called to teach our children how to live and desire to be like Jesus. This call comes from our hearts and listening to what the Lord has placed on our hearts and how we can meet our children where they are at in their faith. Jesus calls us to love one another which is what we as a faithful community need to emulate. I pray that we as a community can come together and desire for our children to know and understand that Jesus loves us and desires a deep relationship with each one of us.

In my own experience there has been much fruit in being part of religious education and spreading the good news to our children. The spreading of the good news is important because our kids have a foundation and are able to build upon that foundation of faith. The other way to engage the youth is to have fruitful conversations about the faith and where they are at on their journey. These conversations can help guide kids on their journey of faith and desire a deeper relationship with Jesus. I believe that if our children desire a deeper relationship with Christ then and we meet them where they are, we can walk with them on their faith journey. It is vital for us as a community of faith to walk with our children and to know they are loved. Many times, children have the belief that they are not loved or not seen by God which is a lie from the evil one and we can combat the evil one by telling our children truth. In society there are many aspects that are pulling kids into different directions and media plays a big part. The media landscape tries to convince the youth how to do many things and this causes lots of stress to kids because they feel like a decision has to be made to satisfy society. We need to eliminate stress and anxiety from the youth because there is more to life than media and being present with Jesus is the best way to relive any negative thoughts. I pray that our children can return to religious education & bear much fruit from their time.

Change And Patience

by Jim Bertler

It's a rough subject to talk about, but we must face it sooner or later, I prefer sooner (now). Change in our liturgy is always a touchy matter when it comes to worshipping our God. God I believe, is happy that we show up for Mass and other devotions to praise HIM. Since I am in charge of music, I try to play the songs that are appropriate for the readings and feast. True, I spice up the music with a faster beat, but I do realize that it also depends on the type of song that is recommended. Music is and plays an important part in today's liturgy, and that is why I talk about bringing back the youth with music. Again, the basics of our religion should be taught at home or, at our parochial schools. We can teach our faith and beliefs to our younger generation, but do we practice what we preach and tell them? Again, it starts at home! Now for our older generation of parishioners, we must practice patience when it comes to changes at Mass. Music and songs will change, sermons will change, but our beliefs should/will never change. Keep in mind that the Mass is a celebration of Jesus's life on earth. Here now is our faith, and this is the important part of our daily lives. "Let the children come to me, the kingdom belongs to such as these." Here now is where I come to play my part in the bringing the youth back with music. But I am just one person working for the Lord, so be a person of patience, and try and do your part in bringing our youth back to Church.

Silver Rose Prayer Service

Each year, from early March through mid-December, Silver Roses are stewarded by Knights of Columbus councils along routes such as from Canada to Mexico. Every stop the Silver Rose makes throughout the pilgrimage is a rosary-centered occasion for Knights, parishioners and community members to pray for respect for life, for the spiritual renewal of each nation, and for the advancement of the message of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

There will be only one stop in GB
Wed, 8/2 - 6pm @ Annunciation

Servicio de Oración de la Rosa de Plata

Faithful Servant, or Not? Silent Majority
by Jim Bertler

Throughout our lives, we are faced with decisions that have to be addressed. Good or bad, a decision must be made for the betterment of all who stand by you, and better yet, who believe in what you stand for. Don't let the loud minority rule what you think and know is wrong. The silent majority may be right, but they have to express themselves so all may hear them. Facts are facts, and if written down in such a matter that there are rules to abide by, it will show the wrongs that others may interpret, and it will now show that you voiced and stood up for the silent majority's rights. We are in a world that has many interpretations for one subject, but if you follow the rules of charity when discussing a subject or topic, love eventually will conquer the wrong which we know to be right. Again, the silent majority must stand to be heard, so don't be afraid to voice your opinion to the loud minority. If the loud minority seems to win on occasions, you don't automatically throw in the towel and quit. Patience, love of neighbor, dedication to a cause should be taken seriously. Did Jesus ever throw in the towel when speaking the truth, then being persecuted by the hierarchy? Look to our Catholic faith and Jesus, especially when we pray for something, and it doesn't happen? Do we lose faith? If we truly believe in something, we try and try again. Truth in something is worthwhile fighting for. (Keep love in the balance of arguments) Are you a "faithful servant" for what is right or not. Judge yourself!

Welcome Home Religious Education!

This Fall, Religious Education will be back at our Faith Formation Center, located in the St. Joseph building. Registration will take place in August. Watch the bulletin for more information. Questions, please contact Frank Hessel, fhessel@quad-parish.org .

“It’s The Jesus Thing To Do”

by Jim Bertler

You wake up in the morning,
does your heart wake up too?
Starting a new day,
is your heart ready too.

God sent Jesus, HIS SON for you,
a heart full of love, and forgiveness too.
Preaching love to everyone,
was HIS love for you. (refrain)

REFRAIN:

A heart that shows love,
is a heart that’s true.
Showing love for others,

A heart that beats love,
every day for you.
Like a mother’s love,
Jesus looking out for you.

His heart suffered greatly,
on the Cross for you.
He opened the gates heaven,
for me and you. (refrain)
