

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

Transfiguration By Sr Jan

Transfigure us, O Lord, transfigure us, O Lord.
Break the chains that bind us, Speak your healing word,
And where you lead we'll follow, Transfigure us O Lord.

This is the song we sing on this Sunday at Mass. It speaks to us of many areas of transformation, conversion, adjusting, remaking & healing such as:

- Light for those in darkness, trapped in sickness and depression, or in drugs, alcohol, pornography, gambling or anything that takes up our time and turns us in on self and away from others.
- The hungry will be filled, the thirsty will have water, the sick will have medical care, the lonely in nursing homes or their own homes will have visitors.
- Family ills will be healed; sinners pardoned, families who are at odds or broken apart will come together.
- Workplaces that are divided or controlled from on top will be places where we all have a say, we all count, and we all are valued.
- Handicapped persons will be accepted and welcomed in our world, given dignity and respect. Unborn children will be protected. Those who are of different sexual orientation or gender identity than we will be loved respected, safe and welcomed in our world.

It speaks to us of our Shepherd who leads us to carry His love to others, to lift those who are fallen, to accompany those who struggle to keep going or to lead those who do not see the path. We do this with light from the transfigured Christ.

Transfigure and transubstantiate have a commonality. In both, Jesus appears in all His glory to humankind.

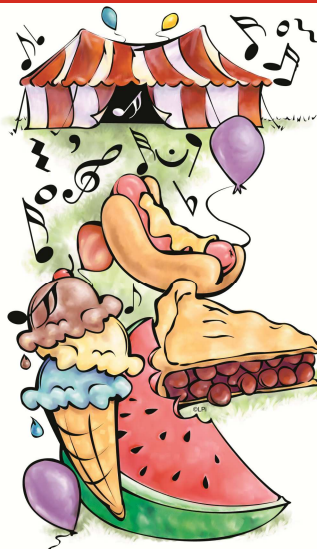

The bread and wine become Jesus for us and for others. Receiving the Eucharist, we are being transformed into His Image. The more we grow in grace, prayer, good deeds and sacraments, the more we are changed into His likeness from one degree of glory to another. (2 Cor. 3:18)

VOUNTEERS by Jim Bertler

When it comes to a Church Picnic or Church function, do you wait to be asked? Is it important to you (pride) that you have to be personally summoned? Are you better than others within your parish that you have to be approached by the priest or chair-person? Again, if this is your parish and there would be a fund raiser, do you come forward, or do you still have to be singled out. Now, let's say you are the chair-person for an event concerning the parish, are you asking for volunteers, or do you expect them to come forward. "Very interesting." Are you a parish member that is here to help each other, especially for the well-being and existence of your parish?

THINK, am I really a good parishioner in the eyes of others, especially God? Now ask yourself, am I a person with good health and with a descent outlook on life, that I can & should help when possible? If I answer this question truthfully, why do I wait to be notified? Another valuable question for (we) the parishioners? Do I participate in attending Church functions even though I can't work at a stand or booth etc.? Attending these events at least shows that you are interested in the social & financial support of your parish. Belonging to a parish has its amenities, but it also expects participation from its members, if you physically can. We want and should thank the many older members for the years they kept the parish together. Now it's time for our younger generation to step forward and do what they physically and financially can to keep the parish flourishing as in the past. VOLUNTEER valuable parishioner!

Prayer Vine If you or someone you know needs a few extra prayers, please submit your request online at www.quad-parish.org or call the parish office.

Welcome Vivianna Rose Wohler Garcia !

We Still Have Openings In The Trinity Choir

We are still in the process of recruiting singers and instrumentalist for the greater honor, glory & praise of God. Yes, we do have a great crew already, but when you have something good, why not share it with others. We practice on Tuesdays, 6-7pm. You are not required to be at every practice, our main focus is to lead parishioners in singing. When you have a choir singing & leading at Mass, it makes for a more joyful & responsive celebration. (More people would sing and are willing to participate - blend in) Don't be bashful, call Jim at the parish office at 920-496-2160
