Restroom Upgrades at Annunciation and St Jude

We all know that there are people that have physical challenges and at the Quad Parishes we try to be ADA compliant or as close as we can get. Because the buildings are older and the schools were designed for younger grades, it isn't easy and can potentially be quite costly.

We have had requests for taller toilets in some of the restrooms and so we recently installed raised toilet seats which are mounted to the existing bowls. These seats give us an extra 4 inches of height, which we hope will help those who have difficulty getting up and down from the lower seats.

Two raised seats have been installed each at Annunciation and St Jude.

At St Jude there is one in the women's restroom on the first floor and one in the men's restroom. As mentioned, the seats give an additional 4 inches of height and have arms on either side plus the grab bars on the wall of the stall.

At Annunciation the new seats are in the men's room near door #5 (handicapped entrance) and the women's restroom, just inside the Kellogg St entrance to the church.

Hopefully these additions will help those who need help.

God is good, all the time. Jesus is coming back soon so be ready. Put on the full armor of God and stand firm in your faith.

Smile, And Then Smile Some More by Jim Bertler

Ask yourself this question, "What does it cost to smile?" Now keep in mind, I wouldn't expect you to walk around all day with a smile. If you did, some people may think your strange or up to something. I myself like to tell jokes to people, and then of course wait to see their reaction. When I go someplace where I may not know anyone (supper clubs) I ask where they are from, and then start telling jokes. It breaks down tension and, usually brings a smile (if they like the joke that is.) People like being in a good mood and, when you see them smiling everyone around them feels good. Now and then, people may have problems you may not know about, and on occasion, a simple smile can cheer them up knowing that you care. A smile expresses or appears to indicate approval and a favorable expression of approval. Now I ask you again, "what does it cost to smile?" When things are going your way, your happy, smiling and, life is good. Yet everyone is not happy all the time. We have homeless people among us, disabled, drug problems etc., but we should try to help them in any way we can. When approaching them and trying to help, extend a helping hand and greet them with a smile. Your smile will show them that you are truly concerned about them, and that you care for their well-being. (You are not looking down on them) When a little baby smiles at you, you also begin to smile, don't you? Ma and Pa, Grandma and Grandpa, it's catching. So, smile, and then smile some more.

Lighter Side

The Broom

There was a little boy who was scared of the dark. One evening his mother asked him to go out onto the back porch and bring her the broom. The little boy said, "Mama, please don't make me go out there. It's dark and you know I'm scared of the dark."

His mother smiled at him and said reassuringly, "There's no need to be afraid of the dark. Jesus is out there, and he'll look after you and protect you."

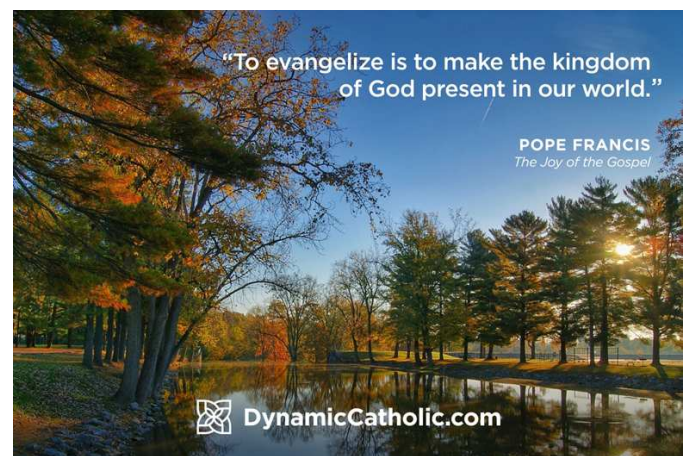

The little boy seemed unsure and said, "Are you sure Jesus is out there?"

The mother said, "Yes, I'm sure. Jesus is everywhere and is always there and ready to help when you're in need."

The boy thought for a moment, then went to the back door and opened it a tiny amount. He looked out into the darkness and called out, "Jesus — if you're out there, please pass me the broom."

What do you call a priest in charge of the school play?

The Big Reveal

My absolute favorite time of the year is upon us. It is the time for harvest; the time of ripeness, the fullness of the season. The kitchen smells like fresh applesauce. Best of all is the leaves are all turning colors. Well, turning colors isn't scientifically correct.

I recall learning way back in second grade about how the green chlorophyll in the leaves uses the sunlight to process food for the trees during spring and summer. Now, as each day's sunset comes sooner and days shorten, the chlorophyll begins to die back and the trees begin, in essence, their long hibernation. Those who prefer romance might want to consider the colorful leaves as the trees pulling up their quilts for a good sleep.

Those who prefer hard facts will say that as the chlorophyll dies back, the carotenoids and anthocyanin that are present in the leaf then show their colors. In other words, the trees at this time of year do not turn color so much, as they reveal the colors that were present all along.

Those who look to creation and are moved to contemplate the Creator could consider that each leaf, in essence, undergoes a transfiguration. They are transfigured; in that, in October each leaf reveals an inner glory, a beauty that was always present but hidden from the eye. Just as Jesus, when transfigured on Mount Tabor, revealed the inner glory of his Divine Nature, which was always present but hidden from the eye.

This autumn season as your heart is stirred by the muted palette of leaves shimmering in the October breeze, perhaps it would be good to remember that because of your baptism that you are called to reveal the glory of God that lives within you. Each day is an opportunity for transfiguration. If our hearts were open to that possibility, it would make this undoubtably the most beautiful season of all.

The Gospel today is a great example of saying, "actions speak louder than words." Thank you for all that you donate and give to St. Vincent de Paul.

Visits with Holy Communion

While we have been blessed with the opportunity to attend Mass, unfortunately, there are some of our fellow parishioners who are unable to get out. We are looking for a few volunteers to bring Holy communion to those unable to attend Mass. If you are able to visit a friend or neighbor with the Eucharist, please contact Sr. Jan to make arrangements.

Blankets Needed for Shelter Preparation

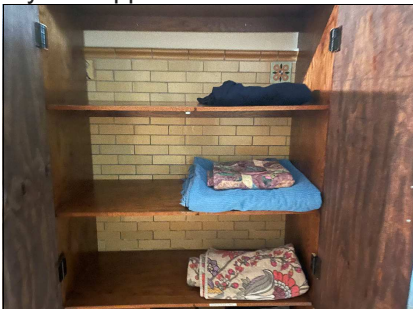

It may not feel like it, but cool weather is right around the corner. We are critically low on blankets! We use blankets for guests utilizing our shelter program and to hand out at the door to those not staying with us.

We are seeking gently used or new blankets in twin or full size. These blankets are ideally not too thin or too bulky. We prefer them to not be throw size or too small to cover the body.

If you are an online shopper, here is a great example.

Your donations can be dropped off at the Men's Shelter between Monday-Wednesday 9 am-3 pm or Fridays 9 am-12 pm. If you wish to ship the blankets or any other donation, please use 411 St. John St., GB, WI 54301.

Thank you for your support!

Food Drive - Oct 14/15

To help those in need, our parishes have a food drive the 1st & 3rd Sunday of each month. Everyone is invited to reach out to the less fortunate by bringing non-perishable food goods or cash donations to Mass. Place them in the buckets at the entrance way of each church.
