Movies are back!

Tues, 10/24, 1pm in room 105 at Annunciation

Our first movie will be "LIFEMARK". It is inspired by a true story. David's comfortable world is turned upside down when his birthmother unexpectedly reaches out to him, longing to meet the 18-year-old son who she's only held once. With the encouragement of his adoptive parents David embarks on a journey of discovery that leads to a staggering truth from his past. See you then!

“Lessons About Life From Animals”

by Jim Bertler

While watching U-tube concerning animal behavior, I truly believe we humans can learn a lot about life and, especially treating others within our society (human race). Watching how a female (mother) animal is so concerned about her babies and very protected from being harmed by other animals. When you watch the news on television concerning all the crime we have throughout the world, you don't see that taking place in the animal world, unless some specie from outside their territory is hungry or territorial regime. As a group they stay together and help each other out when they see them hurt, orphaned or widowed. Their babies don't seem to be pampered, but are taught how to survive (food) and get along with others in their group (flock etc.) In the elephant world when there's a mother's death, the others help take care of the little ones. They have relatives just like we humans that will also see to the well-being of its young. Watch the parents of the birds in your back-yard when their feeding their little ones. God takes care of all His creation and, we as humans should learn to take better care of our families, along with other citizens while we are here on earth. We are here to love and help one another to gain salvation. Our family dogs are always happy to see you and, shows affection when you arrive at home. God wants to see you happy, and awaits your arrival in Heaven. So, take some lessons from our animal friends, and treat one another with respect, love kindness, and bring them up properly in entering the world of today. Quote from Mark Twain: “Of all the animals, man is the only one that is cruel. He is the only one that inflicts pain for the pleasure of doing it.”

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I confess that I have a soft spot for the scary things Jesus says because they are usually ignored. But there's gold in them thar hills, if we have courage to look. This week Jesus gives us a terrifying warning in his parable about the king who gives a marriage feast for his son and promptly goes berserk when people don't respond. The point: those who do not properly respond to God's generous invitation will face totally devastating consequences. The invitees who don't show up get their city burned to the ground. The poor homeless man is tortured for not wearing the correct clothes. Scary indeed.

Is Jesus trying to intimidate or bully us into following him? No, because that is certainly not how he treats anyone in the Gospels. A better view is this: to Jesus, your life matters. The universe is not an empty wasteland where anything goes. It is a theater of love offered and either accepted or rejected. How easy it can be to glide through life thinking my life doesn't make a difference. But it does. It really does.

This should not only be sobering but exhilarating. The positive side of the negative in Jesus' scary parables is the thrill and joy that he is inviting us, therefore our lives matter a great deal. There is a reason to get up in the morning. God's generous love is relentlessly calling us. True, obstinately saying no through our indifference is a catastrophe for us and those around us. But how wonderful must the consequences of our 'yes' be?

— Father John Muir
