Jesus Doesn't Serve Lumpy Gravy

Greetings my friends, I hope you are finding the beauty of fall to be a blessing. I'm not gonna lie, this month has not made it on to my list of all-time favorite months. I have had a few struggles and more disappointments than I would have liked. The gas bill keeps going up while the accounts that I watch don't. A few decisions some folks made were definite let-downs. The Brewers ducked out way earlier than I wanted. The Pack isn't back – well actually they are waaayyy back. I have failed many of the tests of my patience, wisdom and grace. I was even asked after one of my homilies “what was your point?” From my view, I have taken some lumps, I've been a bit anxious and feeling a bit sorry for myself.

Jill, my wife kindly offers me some vitamin D to try to make up for the dwindling daylight and one of my favorite deacons tells me to “pray on it and offer it up to the Lord”. When I am in black-and-white, bottom-line mode, these are not the solutions that I am looking for. The problem, however, is not the advice. The advice comes from love and wisdom. The problem is my perspective. Thankfully I encounter wonderful, wise and caring people every day to help me and, even more importantly, I have Sacred Scripture and the Eucharist as a regular reminder of how blessed I am.

My blessings are far beyond my understanding. I have a roof over my head, I have a bed to sleep in, I have work, food and family. I recently went to a concert and was not attacked or bombed. I have been blessed to speak with people seeking to know God in a deeper way through baptism, OCIA, spiritual direction and bible study. I had the opportunity to join with faithful Catholics from throughout the diocese to pray and worship Jesus at the annual diocesan spiritual gathering in Appleton. And ultimately, I have and know the love of Jesus!

The fact is not lost on me that not everyone has these same opportunities and others are unable to recognize and take advantage of them. I do feel sad about this. This only underscores the importance to recognize, appreciate and share them with others. We are nearing the end of the fall harvest and will soon be marking that with Thanksgiving celebrations. Perhaps this is the year that we make an intentional effort to put the perfect gravy, festive parades, football games and shopping lists AFTER giving thanks to God on our agenda for the day.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, His love is everlasting!

Paz y amor,
Dcn. Bill

Local Knights of Columbus to Sponsor Pilgrim Icon Prayer Service in Honor of St. Joseph

The prayer service, flowing from the Year of St. Joseph declared by Pope Francis in 2021, and inspired by his apostolic letter Patris Corde, is sponsored by Knights of Columbus Fort Howard Council #5382 to honor St. Joseph and pray for his intercession in preserving, cultivating and passing on the Catholic faith to future generations.

Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly chose to entrust his service as Supreme Knight to St. Joseph and through this Pilgrim Icon Program, encourage Knights and their communities to "turn in prayer to St. Joseph, give thanks to God for the gift of fatherly example, and ask St. Joseph to be a father to us" as we seek to "grow in our own imitation of St. Joseph's quiet strength, integrity and fidelity."

In the first year of his pontificate, Pope Francis received the Order's Board of Directors in a private audience, during which the Holy Father said, "I commend all of you in a special way to the intercession of St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family of Nazareth, who is an admirable model of those manly virtues of quiet strength, integrity and fidelity which the Knights of Columbus are committed to preserving, cultivating and passing on to future generations of Catholic men."

The St. Joseph icon is the latest icon to be a part of the Knights of Columbus Pilgrim Icon Program. Every few years, the Knights of Columbus selects an icon of a saint whose patronage is particularly inspiring to Knights and their communities to be featured in the program. The icons travel from council to council and serve as the centerpieces for prayer services in parishes throughout the Order.

Since its inception in 1979, the program has held more than 174,800 local council and parish prayer services with some 22 million participants. Featured images have included Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Our Lady of Czestochowa, Our Lady of Pochoiv, Our Lady of the Rosary, Our Lady of Charity, Our Lady of Persecuted Christians and the Holy Family.

Thursday, Nov 9, 6pm @ St. Joseph

All members of the community are encouraged to join Knights of Columbus Fort Howard Council #5382 to pray for the intercession of St. Joseph in raising, guarding and preparing future generations.

Join us for fellowship and refreshments after the service.

Council #5382 in Green Bay, Wisconsin is one of 17,000 Knights of Columbus councils that make up the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization. Founded in 1882 to assist working-class and immigrant Catholics in the United States, today the approximately two million members of the Knights put their faith into action through a broad range of charitable causes locally, nationally and internationally with financial contributions and hands-on service.

About the Knights of Columbus

In 1882, Blessed Michael McGivney, a young parish priest in New Haven, Conn., founded the Knights of Columbus to serve the needs of a largely immigrant Catholic community. What began as a small fraternal benefit society has since grown into one of the world's leading international charitable organizations, with 2 million members in more than 16,000 local councils. During the past year, Knights around the world donated more than 47 million service hours and $150 million for worthy causes in their communities. The Knights of Columbus also offers extensive life insurance products to members and their families and currently has more than $116 billion of life insurance policies in force. In addition, the Knights provides investment services in accord with Catholic social teaching through Knights of Columbus Asset Advisors, which holds nearly $30 billion in assets under management. Based on the founding principles of charity, unity and fraternity, the Order remains committed to strengthening Catholic families and parishes and to practicing faith in action through service to all in need. To learn more or to join the Knights of Columbus, please visit kofc.org/join.

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Easter season a new convert to Catholicism at my parish asked me with a grave tone in her voice: "Why do we call priests 'father' if Jesus says, 'Call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven'?" Thinking myself clever, I asked, "Do you think it's okay to call someone your 'teacher' or 'mister' or 'dad'?" She said, "Yes, I do." I responded, "Well, Jesus seems to forbid that, too. So, it's obviously hyperbole that he's using." She thought for a moment and declared, "Then I will stop using those words, too!" And she walked away. Not the outcome I was seeking.

We shouldn't be too hasty in dismissing this complaint voiced by many non-Catholics. The expression "father" for ordained priests is not honorary for the individual man. The priest's fatherhood doesn't begin or end in him at all. Rather, the title "father" indicates that he is a sacramental sign of God's Fatherhood revealed in Jesus. I can tell you, as a very unworthy bearer of that title, we should give and receive that title with some trepidation (because of God's awesomeness) & with a little sense of humor (because of the lowliness of the men with the title).

The longer I'm a priest, the more I'm comfortable with people not using the title "father" and just calling me "John." After all, only God is Father in the truest sense. At the same time, Jesus has brought the Father close to us, very close. We honor this closeness in some men with the title "father." Who are the priests in your life whom Christ has sent to you? How wonderful that Christ has surrounded us with humble signs of his Father's love. It's good to celebrate that love with gratitude for the priests in our lives.

— Father John Muir

The other weekend we found a little Funny Money in our collection. The bill probably looks pretty good on the big screen but not at the bank's counting machine. Just a little reminder that there are tricksters doing tricky things.
