Society of St. Vincent de Paul

February 4 - Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today, we find that Jesus would rise very early before dawn and go to a deserted place to pray and then he went out to preach and to heal. Please pray for the poor and suffering, knowing that you are bringing the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

February 11 - Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today Jesus moved with pity, touched the leper and healed him. Let us pray today for the grace to be generous with our gifts to help those who are suffering. By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you indeed put your faith into action as you bring healing to the poor, hungry and weeping.

St. Jude Women's Club Meeting

Thurs, Feb 8, 12pm, St. Jude Café

All women of the quad parishes, please join us at our next meeting! A light lunch will be served at noon. We will be getting in touch with our inner child and playing old fashion games (paper dolls, cats cradle, spoons, clapping games etc.) Questions, call Terri at 920-655-7450.

Dear Parishioners,

Your response to the Reverse Collection for Safe Shelter during Advent was so very generous. In Sr. Helen's recent conversation with Pearl Webster the Director, she again expressed her deep gratitude for your marvelous generosity. In the name of the Community Life Committee, "May God reward you abundantly."

Lent will soon be upon us. As Jesus' disciples we are called to be the face, hands, and feet of Christ in our world. Reaching out to those in need is one response. We ask for your generous contributions to the Reverse Collection on the first Sunday of Lent, February 17-18. This time the collection will be for the needs of the NEW Community Shelter. The items are some of the ordinary things we need in our own daily lives. May our Loving God reward your generous response.

God is Near

When I began writing my blog, Embers From the Fire four years ago one of my biggest fears was whether I would be able to write something new every week. And yet, I have found that fear has evaporated somewhere along the way. I believe that is due to two realities:

- Our God is infinite. And, because God is infinite he is an inexhaustible inspiration.
- God is nearer to each of us than we are to ourselves.

A person who helped my own awareness of God's near and constant presence in my life was someone I never met personally. In fact, it is impossible that I would have ever met him in person because he lived in the 1600's. He is known to the world as Brother Lawrence. I met him through a book of his writings that were preserved for posterity by Brother Lawrence's bishop, and the abbot of the monastery where he lived for over 40 years. Both of these men were convinced that Brother Lawrence, whether ever to be raised to the altar or not, lived as a saint, and they thought his writings and letters would be a positive influence for others. They were correct because it is one of the bestselling books of all time.

One of the more interesting aspects of Lawrence's time as a friar was that he spent his entire time in charge of the kitchen. It was a task that he never enjoyed, even though he did it for four decades. And yet, Lawrence was an incredibly joyful soul who many people, including high ranking people of society sought out for spiritual counsel. He truly was an example that our relationship with the Lord has nothing whatsoever to do with our circumstances in life.

Lawrence recognized that God was constantly with him, and if so, everything he did was an act of prayer – his own method to heed St. Paul's urging for us all to "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18.

This is why the goal of Embers states in part: "What many people don't realize though, is that God comes close to everyone and he comes close to us every day. God longs to be in relationship, in communion, with each of us. And so, God is constantly revealing his presence with us, his presence within us. As God's own revealed nature is relationship, God reveals himself to us in our own relationships: our relationships with the world around us and the people we encounter in our lives. I pray that these essays will help you be more aware of the encounters you have with God in your own life."

If you haven't read my blog yet I would invite you to check it out at: www.embersfromthefire.com and I would suggest that if you want to have a greater awareness of God's presence in your life, that you make The Practice of the Presence of God by Brother Lawrence part of your spiritual reading – (hint) it would be a great Lenten action.

His Peace <><
Deacon Dan

"40 Cans For Lent"

Beginning the first weekend of Lent, The Knights of Columbus Fort Howard Council #5382 will be holding a "40 Cans for Lent" food drive. The goal of this program is exactly as the name implies – for each parishioner/family to contribute one can of food per day during the forty days of Lent. The "40 cans" can be boxes and plastic jars also. Please consider donating one can a day (or what you are able) as part of your Lenten journey. Monetary donations also appreciated, please drop in collection basket labeled "40 Cans For Lent." Please check the expiration dates, we cannot use expired items. Donations can be dropped at the church entrances, or at the parish office. God Bless and thank you for your support. KC's Fort Howard Council #5382

Thank You!

Recently an anonymous donor blessed Annunciation and St. Joseph with a beautiful and much-appreciated gift. Each parish received a $5,000 check to be used for parish needs. We are so thankful for the generosity that is shown by our supporters. It is through parishioner support that we are able to Discover, Follow, Worship and Share Jesus. Thank you for all you have done and continue to do to live that mission!

Is Your Present Status In Life Boring? Or, Have Nothing To Do At The Present Time?

Well, I may have at least one answer to your boredom. If you like to sing or play an instrument and, be with a group of your fellow parishioners, why not join our on-going worshipping and developing "TRINITY CHOIR." We practice on Monday nights at Annunciation parish at 6:00 p.m., and on the 2nd Tuesday at St. Jude's, the reason being, every 3rd Sunday we do sing at St. Jude's for the 9:15a.m. Mass. Singing at Anunciation parish dates vary according to the opening Mass schedule. (In other words, we do not sing every week)

So, come share your musical talent with our three parishes, thus the name TRINITY CHOIR. So, get to the phone to end your boredom and, call the parish office at 920-496-2160 and ask for Jim, you'll be glad you did. Also keep this in mind, as a member, extra indulgences are granted to you upon entry into Heaven. ALLELUIA (JB 1:1-3)

Musically yours, Jim

"Check It Out" at the Library

Over time a number of people have donated books to the Quad-Parish. There are books on prayer, the Bible, saints, grief, women's ministry, spirituality, church history and even some novels. You are welcome to stop by and borrow these books. The shelves are marked so you have an idea where to search for something you might be interested in. All we ask is that you return any books you borrow so that others may enjoy them as well.

These books are located at Annunciation, first floor hallway adjacent to the Parish Office. Stop in during office hours.

Happy browsing! May you experience the Holy Spirit at work within you as you read your selections.

Severe Weather Notice

As wonderful as this area is, at times, we do see some ugly weather conditions. It is important that each one of us makes travel decisions based on our personal assessment of the importance of our trip and the risk of venturing out. It is also wise to remember that what is going on directly outside of our door may be significantly different from the streets, steps and parking lots elsewhere. Please take your safety seriously as you make these decisions. We love you and don't want to see you get hurt!

If Green Bay schools are CLOSED due to weather Morning Mass, meetings and other activities will be CANCELED for the day and the Parish Offices, Hope Center and Faith Formation Center will be CLOSED. If there is a 2-hour DELAY Morning Mass will be CANCELED and the Parish Offices, Faith Formation and Hope Center will open but may be delayed.

You can find our status by calling the office, checking our Facebook page, WBAY (channel 2), WFRV (5) or WGBA (26).

This policy is in effect for the Parish Office, the Hope Center and the Faith Formation Office.
