Benefitting Annunciation, St. Joseph and St. Jude Catholic Churches

FAITH – BELIEVE – TRUST - LOVE Will People Who Are Not Catholic Go To Heaven?

by Jim Bertler 4/2024

A very interesting and worthwhile question, don't you think? Talking and listening to Pastors, Ministers, Rabbis and Tele-Evangelists on TV, a person may wonder when looking for a Church to attend, "who is telling the truth?" God is love, kind, forgiving, the creator of all things and, we are created in His image. So, my question is, do people who are not Catholic, yet believe in God go to heaven? Who preaches the right religion, especially in today's world and throughout the past centuries? Who has the proof of their religious existence and start? Does it start with rituals, ceremonials for membership, how organizations funds are used, administrated decisions etc.? Now if a person believes in God, but can't make a decision on what Church to belong too, will they be saved? (This is an on-going question). Jesus God's son, came down from heaven to save everyone, so what Church did He start? Jesus, our Lord said; "My Kingdom is not of this world. If you do believe in Me, you shall have life everlasting." OK. Now look, meditate, and then reflect on the crucifixion scene. When reading the Bible, one of the prisoners that was also crucified with Jesus, in his final moments of life spoke and said, I believed in you Jesus. Then Jesus upon hearing him said, "this day you shall be with Me in paradise." Was our Catholic Church started at this time, or the days that followed? Was this criminal Catholic, or even baptized, yet he's on his way to heaven. We should as good Catholics and followers of Jesus Christ, read and acquaint ourselves with Sacred Scripture, to be truly informed on our beliefs in our Catholic religion. "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." Follow Jesus: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the ages." (Matthew 28:19-20) So, do you have to be a Catholic in order to go to heaven? Well, first you better believe in Jesus! THINK – AMEN!!!

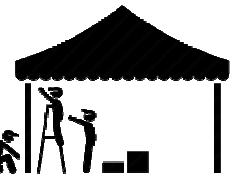

From your Finance Council:

Are you taking advantage of this IRS Option?

QCDs (Qualified Charitable Distributions) allows individuals age 70½ and older to make tax-free donations directly from an IRA to a qualified charity (for example St Joseph Parish) potentially satisfying all or part of their annual RMDs (Required Minimum Distributions). QCDs don't count as income—meaning you can't deduct the contribution on your tax return; they have already reduced your income by that amount—but the tax benefits could outweigh those of donating cash or other assets to charity. Check it out with your financial advisor.

Tent Rentals

Do you have a graduation, wedding, anniversary or other party in your future? The St. Joe's Athletic Club has tents available for rent. There are several sizes to choose from and the rental fee even includes set-up and take-down. For more info email: centercal1@yahoo.com or chazp61@gmail.com.

The Athletic Club could use help with set up and take down on Thursdays & Mondays.

Let us know if you can help!

Building Disciples of Christ: Catholic Charities

"Being a disciple means being constantly ready to bring the love of Jesus to others..."

The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis

Jesus calls us to build people up, heal the broken, and bring love to everyone. Catholic Charities works with individuals, families and communities to help them meet their needs and resolve their problems.

Catholic Charities is committed to bring social services to people of all faiths and ethnicities. Thousands of individuals and families are helped each year throughout our 16-county diocese. Many have little or no health insurance. They offer programs and services in:

- Individual and Family Counseling
- Adoption, Pregnancy and Parenting Support
- Family Strengthening
- Financial Health

The counselors of Catholic Charities are disciples of Christ. Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal allows Catholic Charities to bring the love of Christ to those who need it the most. Make your gift today at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy at 920-272-8123.

"Check It Out" at the Library

Over time a number of people have donated books to the Quad-Parish. There are books on prayer, the Bible, saints, grief, women's ministry, spirituality, church history and even some novels. You are welcome to stop by and borrow these books. The shelves are marked so you have an idea where to search for something you might be interested in. All we ask is that you return any books you borrow so that others may enjoy them as well.

These books are located at Annunciation, first floor hallway adjacent to the Parish Office. Stop in during office hours.

Happy browsing! May you experience the Holy Spirit at work within you as you read your selections.

Friendly Reminder

When going to church, please don't apply perfume or cologne. They may cause irritation or severe reaction to people who have allergies or asthma. Thank you for being considerate of others.

Good To Know

Dear Parishioners,

If you or a family member is ever in the hospital, please know that you can call the parish directly to let us know. Often times we are unaware of parishioners who are in the hospital and a call to the Quad Parish office would help us in knowing this. Changes in regulations protecting patient confidentiality are in effect at all hospitals. Even when the hospital asks if they may notify us of your admission and you answer "yes", it is still helpful if you or a family member notifies us directly, especially if someone needs to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Due to HIPPA regulations the hospitals are not able to notify us of a patient's condition, which is why your help in letting us know directly would be very helpful. You can also call the Pastoral Care Department at any hospital to notify us on your behalf.

Article 1421 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that his Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, his work of healing and salvation, even among her own members. This is the purpose of the two sacraments of healing: the sacrament of Penance and the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

An Easy Stewardship Opportunity

The 12th Avenue parking lot replacement at St. Joe's cost the parish an additional $28,700 due to unexpected excavating work that needed to be done. Thanks to additional donations made, our new total needed is down to $11,006.37.

Donation cans are located at all the entrances of church. If you have extra change, or a few extra bucks, in your pocket, please consider dropping a little bit in the cans. All money collected will help with the parking lot bill.

Help Wanted

Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. (2 Cor 7:1)

We are excited to offer an opportunity to lead our parishes toward holiness in a special way - with a mop & dust cloth!

This is a part-time position with very flexible hours cleaning the offices and public areas at Annunciation and St. Jude.

If you are interested in sharing your love for sparkling sinks, twinkling tile and cobweb-free corners, please get in touch with Patrick or Dcn. Bill at the parish office.

Metal Soda Tabs

We collect the tabs at the QPO for the Ronald McDonald House. Thank you!

Summer Workshops for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

All parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion are required to take one of these courses by the end of 2024.

Beginning in June, the Office of Divine Worship, in partnership with parishes throughout the Diocese, is offering a second round of Liturgical Ministry training for parish ministers on the Vicariate level. These workshops will focus on training those who already serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion as well as those who wish to begin volunteering in this ministry. Below is the link to register; please forward this email to anyone who is currently serving as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or anyone who has expressed interest in being one!

Important: Registration for these workshops is required.

Unlike other lay liturgical ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are to be commissioned for this ministry by the Bishop. This commissioning is preceded by proper and sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence. This formation is ordinarily provided by the Office of Divine Worship in partnership with the parish.

These courses will be the same as those offered last Fall; additional enrichment courses will be offered in 2025 for those who wish to learn more.
