Independence Day Prayer

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

We all know these words by heart. They are from the United States Declaration of Independence. However, are these words held with the same reverence around the world as they are held here at home? Sadly, no. There are many places in the world where it is a life-threatening endeavor to practice one's faith, that faith that was given to each human by that Creator who endowed us with inalienable rights.

Let us take a moment to remember all those people in the world who are not free to seek life, liberty or happiness.

Lord God,
we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask that you bless the members of our armed forces.

Let us pray...

O God,
you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.
You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely,
even if they have not yet found you.
Grant that those of us who live in this great nation
will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world
that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross.
Amen.

OFFICE FOR THE MISSIONS

Visiting Missionary Priest - June 29 & 30

Br. Ayub Mwenda OFMConv will be speaking at the weekend's masses about the work his order is doing to spread the Gospel throughout the world.

Br. Ayub is originally from Kenya. His Franciscan journey has taken him to Tanzania, Zambia (studied for four years), Poland (studied for five years) and as a missionary in Ecuador where he served for two years. Br. Ayub now serves as a food pantry manager at Mary Mother of God Parish in Chicago, IL. He has also ministered at the Basilica of St. Josaphat in Milwaukee, WI and at the shrine of St. Maximilian Kolbe (Marytown) in Libertyville, IL.

Br. Ayub speaks English, Swahili, Polish and Spanish. The Conventual Franciscans number about 4,000 friars serving in 70 countries spread over 6 continents. While the Conventual Franciscans are blessed to count many saints in their history, they are perhaps best known for being the order to which St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Joseph of Cupertino and St. Bonaventure belonged.

Your generous support to the mission of the Conventual Franciscans will be used for the education of young friars in Africa which at the moment is thriving with numerous vocations. Your generous gifts will also be used to support the work of the friars among the poor in this region. Consider to share generously the gifts that God has given you.

Would You Sponsor A Meal?

We are looking for volunteers to prepare a meal for the NEW Community Shelter on a 4th Monday of the month. We typically serve around 200 people.

If cooking is not your thing, we are in need of monetary donations. Donations (checks payable to your parish) can be dropped in the weekend collection baskets, or brought to the parish office. It's a blessing to be able to give a warm meal to those in need.

Questions, please contact Jerry Leisgang at 920-562-6443 or jerryleisgang@gmail.com.

Thank you in advance for your help and support!

Thank You!

The missing rosary has been FOUND! Thank you to all who helped look for it, and to all who prayed that it would be found!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. This week, please join with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

Annunciation Rummage Sale - Sept 6 & 7

All of us have gifts we can share. Please think of where you may be able to contribute.

A sign-up notebook is on the back counter at Annunciation Church. Questions and ideas; please contact Chris Kust at 920-619-6479. Thank you, everyone!

Rummage Donations

We are accepting donations ONLY through August 28, during business hours. Please bring them to door #1 on Kellogg St. We are looking especially for donations of Women's and Plus Size Clothing. Last Fall we featured a Plus Size Boutique that was very popular. As you sort through your closets, please consider donating to our Sale. Thank you!

Our next strategy meeting is Monday, August 12, 6pm at Annunciation in Room 105. Your ideas are welcome!

GOOD TO KNOW

Dear Parishioners,

If you or a family member is ever in the hospital and you would like a visit from a priest or a pastoral associate from the parish, please know that you can call the parish directly to let us know. Often times we are unaware of parishioners who are in the hospital and a call to the Quad Parish office would help us in knowing this. Changes in regulations protecting patient confidentiality are in effect at all hospitals. Even when the hospital asks if they may notify us of your admission and you answer "yes", it is still helpful if you or a family member notifies us directly, especially if someone needs to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Due to HIPPA regulations the hospitals are not able to notify us of a patient's condition, which is why your help in letting us know directly would be very helpful. You can also call the Pastoral Care Department at any hospital to notify us on your behalf.

Visiting hospitalized parishioners is an important part of our ministry. Help us to find you and/or your family members when hospitalized - a "YES" answer to "Notify parish?" will usually put you on our parish lists, but it is always a good idea to notify the Parish Office directly to make sure we are notified and also so that we know the patient's condition since the hospital does not release this information to us unless you specifically ask them to. Your help in this matter will help us to be of better service to you.

Article 1421 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that his Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, his work of healing and salvation, even among her own members. This is the purpose of the two sacraments of healing: the sacrament of Penance and the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Faith Formation Classes Begin October 2nd

Year one was a huge success! We look forward to meeting more of your children and grandchildren! Registration has begun. Forms are available in the back of each church, at the Quad Parish office and on the Quad Parish website.

Classes are held on Wednesday evenings at our Faith Formation Center, located in the St. Joseph building.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

June 30, 2024

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

If You Are Reading This, Why Are You Still Here?

by Jim Bertler 6/24

Question: Many people died at your age, but you are still here?

Have you ever thought about your life's journey here on earth? Why did God put me here today, and what does He expect from me. There are many things happening in the world today, that are very concerning and questionable. What is my part in this world of ours today? I, being only one person, what can I do to make things better in our world of today. If you are a Christian, keep in mind that Jesus was only one person. But, by His teachings, love and good examples to those around Him, He gathered a group of men (followers) and started a new outlook on life. Again, only one person. One must remember that the purpose of our life her on earth, is to prepare our soul for the next world. How often do we ever think about this in our daily lives? His message was "love of neighbor." As of right now, this very minute, how are you handling this charitable act in your life? Is there love for those around you, or only for a few. Yes, love for your family should be automatic, but I'm asking you about "love of neighbor." If I follow Jesus' words of love in my own life, will this help me get to Heaven? Again, why am I here! The answer is within oneself. To improve the world and oneself, we start at home (self). Teaching and giving good examples to those around us is a start. We then reach out to our neighbors with kindness and, charitable works of mercy. Why am I here? Well, were slowly getting there. Being or trying to be a follower of Jesus, is not an easy task, yet where there is love, love will conquer and prevail. So, the secret here is "LOVE." First, do you love yourself? You must first love yourself, before you can love others. (here is your starting point) Now, if you start to follow and put into practice the "Words" of Jesus with love, you're on your way in helping Jesus with God the Father, to make this a better world for today. The name Jesus in Hebrew means: "God saves." Keep in mind that Jesus came to save us, can't we help Him by trying to help others in some small way? Practicing our faith to the best of our ability, will help show others the way to a better world. We all have some talent within our lives to help our neighbors. Again, why am I here?
