As we welcome Fr. Erick and Fr. Dominic, we have found that we need a few things. Similar to what we just read in last Sunday's Gospel reading, our friars have arrived with (and seek) very little.

Regardless of this, there is still a little "spring cleaning" that needs to happen.

We put together a few things that we would like to provide. Is there anything on the list that you would be willing to sponsor? If so, please reach out to Dcn. Bill (920-496-2160) to cross it off the list. Thank you for making this transition a good one!

Wish List

- Anointing Kit for visits to our sick parishioners
- Chalice palls for each parish
- A cope to be worn for Holy Hour and other liturgical functions (Annunciation)
- Professional cleaning of the friary
- 2 Recliners (the current ones have been "retired")
- Carpet replacement in one bedroom of the friary (rectory)

Faith Formation Classes Begin October 2nd

Year one was a huge success! We look forward to meeting more of your children and grandchildren! Registration has begun. Forms are available in the back of each church, at the Quad Parish office and on the Quad Parish website.

Classes are held on Wednesday evenings at our Faith Formation Center, located in the St. Joseph building.

Questions, contact Patti Phillips

Would You Sponsor A Meal?

We are looking for volunteers to prepare a meal for the NEW Community Shelter on a 4th Monday of the month. We typically serve around 200 people.

If cooking is not your thing, we are in need of monetary donations. Donations (checks payable to your parish) can be dropped in the weekend collection baskets, or brought to the parish office. It's a blessing to be able to give a warm meal to those in need.

Questions, please contact Jerry Leisgang at 920-562-6443 or jerryleisgang@gmail.com.

Thank you in advance for your help and support!

Raising Vocations for Tomorrow

Help them say Yes! As friends and followers of Jesus, we need to accompany our young men and women as they discover Jesus and consider a vocation to religious life. In one week, you can do just that by supporting the Raising Vocations Collection!

Watch your mailboxes for more details. Your gift will benefit ministries that journey with young people to help them discover Christ and say "yes" to a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. This work happens through youth conferences, campus ministry, youth and young adult ministry, and much more. Because of you, we can support our youth and help them hear the call God has for them. Thank you for your generosity!

To make your gift today,
visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give or call Tammy Danz at 920-272-8123.

Tent Rentals

The St. Joe's Athletic Club has tents available for rent. There are several sizes to choose from and the rental fee even includes set-up and take-down. For more info email: centercal1@yahoo.com or chazp61@gmail.com.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

July 28, 2024
17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus God not only provides for their needs, but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails. — Father John Muir

Fall Fest is Sat, Sept. 21

In Essence

I just returned home from attending the National Eucharistic Conference that was held in Indianapolis. It was an amazing experience. There were over 50,000 people in attendance with hundreds of speakers and learning sessions. There were numerous opportunities over the five days to experience Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Tens of thousands took their faith to the streets and followed our Eucharistic Lord through the streets of the city.

The climax, as most fitting, was a Mass that was unlike anything else that I had witnessed. The opening procession, which included hundreds of acolytes, deacons, priests and bishops took nearly half an hour. Cardinal Luis Tagle from the Philippines was the celebrant as the Papal Envoy, and he delivered a heartfelt and stirring homily and the prayers and blessings of Pope Francis. Music was provided by the Indianapolis Orchestra. For many of us, this was likely the Mass of our lifetime.

But, if I had to point out one thing that captured the moment for me, it was a little girl of maybe five or six years old. I was seated on the fifth of six levels in the Lucas Oil stadium; the little girl was all the way down on the floor level.

As the opening music played and that seemingly endless opening procession moved from the right and up the center aisle, way over to the left side, at the back of the space this little girl in a white dress had stepped out into the aisle where she had about ten feet of open space. She began to dance and twirl.

Her motion caught my eye. I wondered at first if her parents were horrified and embarrassed, but no one came to pull her back, and the girl continued to dance. Soon, another girl joined her. She was about half the size and also wore a white dress. Sisters, I thought. The smaller girl tried to match the grace of the taller one.

Perhaps they were antsy children who just couldn't stay still. But I think the older one simply felt the sway of the angels who had joined this liturgy of Heaven in Communion with Earth, and she simply joined in. And perhaps the younger sister just wanted to have what the older one had, but the truth is that joy is attractive and we are drawn into it. For my heart, they were the image of the essence of the entire Congress.

"Then young women shall make merry and dance, young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into joy, I will show them compassion and have them rejoice after their sorrows. I will lavish choice portions on the priests, and my people shall be filled with my blessings." Jeremiah 31:13-4

OCIA stands for Order of Christian Initiation for Adults, which is the Catholic Church's way of initiating new members. OCIA is much more than a program. It is a learning and loving process in which conversion of the heart brings one to Jesus Christ.

OCIA is for the following people:

- Unbaptized adults who wish to learn more about the Catholic faith and possibly become Catholic
- Baptized Catholics who would like to prepare to receive Eucharist and/or Confirmation by increasing their understanding of the Catholic faith
- Baptized Christians from other denominations who would like to learn more about the Catholic Church and possibly convert to Catholicism
- Fully initiated Catholics who would like to re-discover their Catholic faith

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the OCIA process, please contact Mike Walters in the parish office (920-496-2160 ext. 125) or email pastoralassociate@quad-parish.org. Weekly meetings begin in September and continue through the Easter season next year.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel, Jesus supersedes both the apostles' and the crowds' expectations: with little he feeds many...Jesus is the sign of God's lavish presence and love. Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is indeed a sign of God's extravagant love to the lonely and the poor. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families, providing help with utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Host Family Needed

Private & Public F-1 Exchange (PSE) provides a homestay program whereby we place high school students from all over the world into American homes for the cultural experience. Our website is www.pse-edu.org. We have a Catholic student who will be attending a high school in Green Bay (assigned to the host family's home) for the Fall Semester 2024. He is very willing to attend church services with his host family.

Eduardo, from Brazil, is 17 years old, and enjoys soccer and winter sports. He is Catholic and would prefer living in a Catholic home and attending Catholic services with his host family.

Hosting experience is for one Semester only, student brings spending money, and PSE offers a $700/mo. stipend to help offset expenses as well as providing outstanding support! Please contact Flo Webb at fwebb@pse-edu.org or 480-650-5644 for more information.
