As we welcome Fr. Erick and Fr. Dominic, we have found that we need a few things. Similar to what we just read in last Sunday's Gospel reading, our friars have arrived with (and seek) very little.

Regardless of this, there is still a little "spring cleaning" that needs to happen.

We put together a few things that we would like to provide. Is there anything on the list that you would be willing to sponsor? If so, please reach out to Dcn. Bill (920-496-2160) to cross it off the list. Thank you for making this transition a good one!

Wish List

- Anointing Kit for visits to our sick parishioners
- Chalice palls for each parish
- A cope to be worn for Holy Hour and other liturgical functions (Annunciation)
- Professional cleaning of the friary
- 2 Recliners (the current ones have been "retired")
- Carpet replacement in one bedroom of the friary (rectory)

Faith Formation Classes Begin October 2nd

Year one was a huge success! We look forward to meeting more of your children and grandchildren! Registration has begun. Forms are available in the back of each church, at the Quad Parish office and on the Quad Parish website.

Classes are held on Wednesday evenings at our Faith Formation Center, located in the St. Joseph building.

Help School Families In Need!

Annunciation, St. Joseph & St. Jude are sponsoring a school supply drive through Sunday, July 28th! We are working with Seymour Park Neighborhood Group to provide supplies to the schools who are overwhelmed due to the closures of the Tank and Keller Elementary school buildings. Labeled bins are at the entrance of each church and at the Quad Parish Office.

Please donate to help our kids!

When I was hungry you gave me food to eat

Did you know that each month our parishes are responsible for providing a meal at the NEW Community Shelter. We are responsible not only for the preparation, but also the FUNDING of each meal served.

This last Christmas Day we served 160 people, in May we served 192 people. In 2021 the cost per meal was 89¢, this year in May the cost per meal was $3.19. We strive to serve a basic nourishing meal. Because of increases in both the cost and the number of people being served, we do need some help to continue feeding the less fortunate of our community.

When I was lonely you sat by my side

Not only do we serve a meal but we provide much needed fellowship. When you see the notice in the bulletin, please consider helping monetarily or by baking a dessert. ANYTIME you can provide financially, please place cash or check, payable to your parish, in an envelope marked NEW Meal and drop it in the collection or bring to the Parish Office. Thank you for helping and God bless you!

Would You Sponsor A Meal?

We are looking for volunteers to prepare a meal for the NEW Community Shelter on a 4th Monday of the month. We typically serve around 200 people.

If cooking is not your thing, we are in need of monetary donations. Donations (checks payable to your parish) can be dropped in the weekend collection baskets, or brought to the parish office. It's a blessing to be able to give a warm meal to those in need.

Questions, please contact Jerry Leisgang at 920-562-6443 or jerryleisgang@gmail.com.

Thank you in advance for your help and support!

Support our local advertisers

Please show your support for your parish by also supporting our advertisers. We wouldn't be able to bring you our bulletin every week without them. Please encourage and remind others to show their support and shop local.

Annunciation Rummage Sale - Sept 6 & 7

All of us have gifts we can share. Please think of where you may be able to contribute.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, and those offering to help them. Thank you!

History of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds

In the earliest days of the Church, there seemed to be a common practice of offering both Eucharistic species (i.e., under the forms of both bread and wine) to the faithful. Over time, however, this practice gradually became less and less frequent, until it virtually disappeared around the 12th century. Many early Protestant theologians rejected the belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and insisted that the "Chalice" be offered to all members of their congregations at every celebration.

So as to uphold the Church's teaching on the Real Presence and the Doctrine of Concomitance, the Council of Trent determined that it was pastorally inappropriate to return to the early Church's practice of offering Holy Communion under both kinds to the lay faithful.

The Second Vatican Council, and the liturgical documents that have followed, encouraged that the Church restore the practice of offering the Precious Blood to the faithful during some of the most important celebrations of Mass within the liturgical year.

The documents also extended widely the faculty of the Diocesan Bishop to establish norms for Communion under both Kinds for his own diocese, as he sees pastorally appropriate.

Like other liberties taken with liturgical practices in recent years, Holy Communion under both kinds to the faithful seems to go beyond what was called for by the Church's documents promulgated during and after the Second Vatican Council. What was intended to only happen on particular Solemnities, Feasts, and Celebrations had become the norm. Many parishes throughout the United States, including the Diocese of Green Bay, offered the Precious Blood to everyone at every Mass. While this change was doubtlessly well-intended, it oftentimes failed to consider the following liturgical principles.

Therefore, in keeping with the Liturgical Norms and Directives promulgated and contained within the Church's various liturgical books and documents, the Diocesan Practice of Holy Communion under Both Kinds is that Distribution of Holy Communion from the Cup may only take place and is encouraged on the following liturgical celebrations:

- o All the faithful who participate in the Easter Vigil, particularly the newly baptized;
- o The Christmas Mass During the Night (Midnight Mass);
- o Holy Thursday, Mass of the Lord's Supper;
- o All weekend Masses on:
 - Divine Mercy Sunday;
 - The Solemnity of Pentecost;
 - The Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity;
 - The Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi);
 - The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while." For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. "Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!" And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

— Father John Muir

National NFP Awareness Week
July 21st – July 27th, 2024

Natural Family Planning: The theme for 2024 is “Love Beyond Measure”

Natural Family Planning Awareness Week is a national educational campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to celebrate God’s vision for marriage and promote the methods of Natural Family Planning. Natural Family Planning (NFP) methods reflect the dignity of the human person within the context of marriage and family life, and promote openness to life and the gift of the child. By complementing the love-giving and life-giving nature of marriage, NFP can enrich the bond between husband and wife.

Host Family Needed

Private & Public F-1 Exchange (PSE) provides a homestay program whereby we place high school students from all over the world into American homes for the cultural experience. Our website is www.pse-edu.org. We have a Catholic student who will be attending a high school in Green Bay (assigned to the host family’s home) for the Fall Semester 2024. He is very willing to attend church services with his host family.

Eduardo, from Brazil, is 17 years old, and enjoys soccer and winter sports. He is Catholic and would prefer living in a Catholic home and attending Catholic services with his host family.

Hosting experience is for one Semester only, student brings spending money, and PSE offers a $700/mo. stipend to help offset expenses as well as providing outstanding support! Please contact Flo Webb at fwebb@pse-edu.org or 480-650-5644 for more information.
