Prayer for Priests

Lord God, most holy,
 we approach you in gratitude for your holy ordained priesthood.
 You have called these men to be set apart
 and to shepherd your people,
 as you shepherd your entire church.
 We pray for them in their daily work.
 Grant to them an increase in spiritual gifts and grace,
 so they may be prepared for the tasks at hand.
 Lead them not into temptation
 and protect them from the grasp of the evil one.
 It is through the sacraments they confer that we encounter the divine in a real and profound way.
 May your church never lose sight of these,
 your special sons, and may we, the body of Christ,
 never fail to cherish the gift of their lives,
 which they have freely given to you and your holy church.
 We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son.
 Amen.

Blest Art will be visiting your parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. When Blest Art visits your parish, we will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art.

We gladly accept cash, checks, and all major credit cards.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Blest Art will be visiting your parish on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Our mission is to support those families in the Holy Land.

For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for those Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christians.

Blest Art Inc helps the struggling Christian families of Bethlehem by marketing their artwork in the United States. Due to this work many Christian families maintain their livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of our Lord.

When Blest Art visits your parish, we will have hand-carved nativity sets, statues, crosses, rosaries, and many other pieces of beautiful olive wood art. We kindly invite you to visit our display and to consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land. In doing so, you will help support the many families who depend on this form or art for their living. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christian families.

We gladly accept cash, checks, and all major credit cards. Please note that we do not ask for, nor do we accept, any donations.

Thank you in advance for your purchase.

Jeryes Qumseya and the members of Blest Art Inc

“Check It Out” at the Library

Over time a number of people have donated books to the Quad-Parish. There are books on prayer, the Bible, saints, grief, women's ministry, spirituality, church history and even some novels. You are welcome to stop by and borrow these books. The shelves are marked so you have an idea where to search for something you might be interested in. All we ask is that you return any books you borrow so that others may enjoy them as well.

These books are located at Annunciation, first floor hallway adjacent to the Parish Office. Stop in during office hours.

Happy browsing! May you experience the Holy Spirit at work within you as you read your selections.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Maggots, grubs, worms. When I imagine one or many of these nasty slimy buggers living inside my body — unseen, feeding off my flesh, slowly rotting me out — I feel deeply disgusted. If I knew I had a worm, I would do anything to remove the alien invader, and fast. But what if I couldn't ever get it out?

This is precisely the image Jesus uses to describe those who cause others to sin and fail to cut out what leads them to sin. He contrasts the kingdom of God with Gehenna, "where the worm does not die." If we can stomach it for a moment, there is much wisdom in this nauseating metaphor.

First, sin is always parasitic. It feeds on what is good like a worm in a host. It's not symbiotic or additive, as virtue and love always are. Sin invades, devours, and damages the sinner. Second, sin is always social. No matter how hidden, it quietly eats away at others — usually the most poor and vulnerable, the "little ones," as the Lord says. How healthy it is for us to acknowledge this! Our gossiping, greed, over-indulgence, lying, pride, laziness, lust for power and reputation, and so on ... they do not add anything to life. They are worms eating away at others and ourselves.

We cut out these filthy parasites through genuine repentance and bold action. Imagine the peace and relief that follows the removal of a sickening worm from your body. How much greater is the peace we enjoy when the spiritual worms are gone for good. We'd never wait to act against physical parasites. Neither should we with the worms of sin.

— Father John Muir

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's gospel Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to Christ will not, I assure you, go without his reward." On September 27, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor, they are among the first to know their real needs.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families, providing in food, for utility, rent and other bills. God Bless You!

Dishes! Dishes! Dishes!

St Jude Parish has decided to part with our cafeteria dishes; large and small plates, different size bowls, cups and so much more! If you are interested, please contact the parish office by Oct 21st. A free will offering is what we are asking,

Thank you, St Jude Parish.

Wedding Tears by Dcn Bill

This is how the story was told to me. Whether or not every fact is accurate I cannot attest. I do, however, believe it to be true in spirit. More importantly, I believe that the moral or the story is righteous and good.

Some years ago Laura and Rob met and quickly hit it off. After dating for a while they decided that they wanted to marry each other. There was great joy in their hearts. The announcement of the engagement brought smiles and tears.

Laura and Rob came from caring families who loved them very much. Being Christians, they were also thrilled that they were choosing to be married in church. There was a problem, though - Laura was Catholic! Rob's family was kind to Laura but they were genuinely, deeply and tearfully concerned about Rob's ability to spend eternity in Heaven if he married a Catholic. There was actual crying. Some of Rob's family members even refused to attend the wedding because it was in a Catholic church.

It is at least ironic, and likely sinful, to use Christianity as a tool of division is it not? To use Love to justify hatred is NEVER in line with what God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit - teaches us. Yet, so many times good-willed people find themselves in this very situation.

In our readings this weekend we literally, once again, get the answer to "what would Jesus do?". Jesus tells John in no uncertain terms that we are not to stand in the way of others who are doing good. Furthermore, we are told to take aggressive and decisive action to eliminate sin from our own lives.

As for Laura and Rob, their families have come to not only accept them but they have grown to love them and to treat them like family. They have also come to believe that the love they share is the love that Jesus has called all humanity to share. Time, conversations and being open to God's graces made this all possible. I believe that this is a lesson that we can all learn from. It is good to hold things close but nothing should stand in the way of true love. If we can accomplish this we, like Laura and Rob, will live happily ever after.
